Blast Hanoi, 'If Needed,' Rivers Says

Let World Opinion Go Fly A Kite, Congressman Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, of the House Armed Services Committee says the United States should "flatten Hanoi if necessary (and) let world opinion go fly a kite."

His Senate counterpart, Chairman Richard B. Russell of the Armed Services Committee, says "the use of superior force is the only means by which they (the Communists) can be forced to the conference table."

Rivers, a South Carolina Democrat, said in a telephone interview Wednesday night from Charleston, S.C., "We should use to the fullest the potential of our great air power" upon North Vietnam.

He said the lack of full use of such power "is why these people think we're kidding."

He derided reports of civilian casualties in North Vietnam and asked "what about these (American) fliers that have been shot down on these missions of indecision? Nobody seems to be worried about these fellows."

Rivers referred to bombings of cities in World War II and said "we were determined to win (now) we're worrying much more about public opinion than about victory."

Russell told an Atlanta dinner audience Wednesday night "you can't fly airplanes three times the size of a house and drop bombs and not kill some civilians. The remarkable thing to me is that more civilians haven't been killed."

He said peace appeals "have failed as yet to elicit the slightest meaningful response from Hanoi.

"Neither has Hanoi evinced the slightest interest in entering into negotiations with us for an honorable settlement.

"In my view, this continued intransigence leaves us no choice but to inflict greater pun-

New Bomb In Relations

Peking Blast Seen Worsening Soviet-China Ties

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

China has exploded another nuclear device and thrown yet another bomb into the rubble of Soviet-Chinese relations.

As much as any other one factor, atomic weaponry has contributed liberally to worsening relations between the two Communist giants and may yet be the element which makes the break complete and final.

With the latest explosion — Red China's fifth and its third this year — Peking issued a propaganda blast which said the success of these tests "is a heavy blow to U.S. imperialism and Soviet modern revisionism, which have been collaborating in a vain attempt to enforce their nuclear monopoly and sabotage the revolutionary struggles of all oppressed people and oppressed nations."

With each Red Chinese explosion Soviet nervousness has increased. This explosion could be enough to push the Kremlin into a more active role in seeking peace in Vietnam, despite avowals from Moscow that the Soviet leaders will take no such initiative unless specifically asked by the North Vietnamese.

Moscow appears now to see in China's nuclear club membership a real threat of nuclear weapons spreading to other countries and of a world situation developing beyond the control of the two major nuclear powers.

Peking has vowed again and again to "break the nuclear monopoly" of the Soviets and the Americans, and has given the impression that it believes the more nations that get the bomb, the better. The official Peking People's Daily said recently that Red China "will never be party to the so-called nuclear nonproliferation treaty to deprive non-nuclear countries of their rights and injure the interests of the world's people."

As China grows more confident, Moscow grows more jittery. The danger is far closer to the U.S.S.R. than to the Western Hemisphere. And China, denied Soviet help since 1958 in the nuclear weapons field, grows more belligerent toward the Soviet leaders with each successful test.

Bainbridge Steams Into Tonkin Gulf

Ground Fighting Slackens In South As 2nd Truce Nears

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The U.S. Navy announced today that its power-packed Task Force One — made up of all three of the Navy's nuclear-powered surface ships — is in action in the Gulf of Tonkin off North Vietnam.

The latest to arrive was the frigate Bainbridge, which joined the aircraft carrier Enterprise and the cruiser Long Beach at "Yankee Station" 100 miles off the North Vietnamese Coast.

The three ships operated previously as Task Force One with the U.S. 6th Fleet in the Mediterranean and sailed together in a history - making round-the-world voyage without refueling in 1964.

The 85,000-ton Enterprise, the world's biggest warship, arrived Dec. 17 for her second tour of duty with the 7th Fleet off Vietnam. The Long Beach preceded her by two weeks.

The Navy's disclosure came as ground fighting slackened again in South Vietnam and the 48-hour New Year's truce approached. Only one ground clash of any significance was reported.

Troops of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile Division battled a North Vietnamese force of unknown size in mountain- surrounded rice fields 280 miles northeast of Saigon. Fragmentary reprts said they were still fighting this afternoon.

U.S. casualties so for were reported light and enemy losses were not known.

No contact was reported in the big Mekong Delta sweep launched Tuesday by several

Defied Court Order

Toledo Workers Face Dismissal

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)- City officials moved today toward dismissal of city workers who defied a court order by remaining off work and picketing city buildings today.

City Manager Frank Backstrom said nine workers arrested Wednesday were due in court today for possible contempt citations on grounds they disobeyed a court order against interfering with city operations.

Common Pleas Judge John Connors Jr. issued a temporary injunction Wednesday directing the 950 members of Local 7 of the Public Employes Union to return to work and to remove picket lines which had kept 300 members of the Teamsters Union off their jobs.

He issued orders for the arrest of 27 pickets after they refused to quit picketing. Officers sought those who had not yet been arrested.

The representative of the employes union, Charles Hendrix, was served with the court injunction Wednesday night, but said he would go to jail rather than end the picketing, which began Wednesday on the union's demand for an 8 per cent pay raise effective Jan. 1. They are scheduled to get a 4 per cent boost Jan. 1.

Backstrom said letters would be sent to absent employes today giving them notice they faced dismissal under a state law forbidding strikes or work stoppages by public employes. Striking workers can be fired 10 days after they are given notice to return to work or face dismissal.

The work stoppage created a traffic crisis Wednesday morning, when snow and ice slicked streets. Major thoroughfares were generally clear today, ice melted by Wednesday's warmth and traffic, but Backstrom said side streets "are pretty dangerous." He said the city recorded more than 100 accidents Wednesday, about twice normal.

He said refuse collection, halted because the Teamsters will not cross the picket lines, would become critical soon, although a private service picks up from hospitals, restaurants, and industries.

Supervisors are keeping water and sewage treatment plants operating.

Backstrom said even more pickets were walking today, despite the court order and the arrests.

Higher Social Security Tax Slated Jan. 1

Will Climb From 4.2 To 4.4, Mostly For Medicare Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government will take a bigger bite of the weekly paycheck beginning next week to help pay for increased Social Security benefits, especially medical care for the elderly.

Social Security taxes will climb from this year's 4.2 per cent rate to 4.4 per cent on Jan. 1 and most of the increase will be used in the medicare program.

Over-all, the increase will add an extra $1 billion to the Social Security trust funds during 1967 but the most any one persons will have to pay is $290.40, up $13.20 from this year.

Of the $13.20 increase, $9.90 will be earmarked for the medical care program and the rest for regular Social Security benefits.

And there's more to come in the years ahead.

Increases in the Social Security tax rate are already built into law through 1987 and any increased benefits voted by Congress could mean even higher taxes.

President Johnson has already made an across-the-board improvement in benefits as a major legislative goal for next year and has the support of both Democratic and Republican leaders.

Next year's bite won't hurt as much as the one last January when not only the tax rate but the earnings on which it is levied were raised. The first $6,600 in earnings will be subject to the tax next year, the same as this year.

But the 1965 tax was based on a rate of 3.625 per cent and earnings of $4,800 for a maximum payment of $174. This rose to $277.20 this year. Of this year's maximum, $23.10 was earmarked for medicare.

Next year, $33 of every maximum payment of $290.40 will go for the medical care program.

This maximum is paid by both the worker and his employer.

Accord Nips Strike Threat At Greyhound

CLEVELAND (AP)—A threatened bus strike that could have snarled plans for an estimated 500,000 holiday travelers was averted Wednesday night with the signing of a tentative labor agreement for the Greyhound Bus Lines' eastern division.

Some 5,500 drivers, terminal and maintenance employes who are members of the Amalgamated Transit Union will vote by mail on the new pact. The union turned down a previous agreement by a 2-1 margin.

Vote on the latest agreement is expected to be completed in three weeks.

Details were not disclosed pending the membership vote, but E. C. Nichols, a labor relations director for Greyhound, called it "an honorable contract for both sides."

The agreement was reached after a federal mediator entered the dispute and set up talks which continued into the night.

Negotiations between company and union had been broken off Tuesday in Chicago, and the union set its strike date. The talks resumed here Wednesday.

Greyhound had offered a package it said would provide wage increases amounting to just over five per cent in each year of the contract. The current average pay for drivers was given as $9,600, but Greyhound said some drivers make $12,500.

Red China's 5th Nuclear Explosion

Peking Blast Hints Step Toward Hydrogen Bomb

TOKYO (AP) — Red China's fifth nuclear explosion, apparently its biggest, indicates a big stride toward a hydrogen weapon, Japanese experts said today.

There was some speculation the device exploded Wednesday was a small hydrogen bomb, or a reinforced nuclear weapon. Although the official Chinese announcement gave no details of the size and type of the device, Japanese newspapers had no doubt it contained thermonuclear material.

They noted the Chinese announcement said the test raised China's nuclear knowledge "to a new level."

Some predicted a grim new year's present if the test's radioactive cloud drifts over Japan as expected Saturday or Sunday. Snow, which could bring down contaminated particles from the atmosphere, is forecast for much of Japan on New Year's Day.

"At any rate, we must pay attention to the fact that real production of a hydrogen bomb (by China) is now imminent and only a matter of time," the newspaper Sankei said.

Sankei said Japanese defense agency officials did not believe the blast was a full-fledged hydrogen bomb because of the yield — estimated by U.S. intelligence at the equivalent of 300,000 tons (300 kilotons) of TNT.

Sankei said Japanese officials believe an H-bomb would have produced a yield near to 1,000 kilotons. But the newspaper Asahi noted that the United States set off a hydrogen bomb underground in Nevada in 1962 in the 100-kiloton range.

Another Japanese newspaper, Mainichi, said the fifth test was believed to have increased the amount of thermonuclear material in the Chinese bomb. Conducted in bad weather, the test demonstrated the stepped-up pitch in China's nuclear development, the newspaper said.

It added it will be some time, however, before China is able to reduce a hydrogen device to a size capable of being delivered by a missile.

Most Japanese estimates were based on a study of microbarometer readings at the Japanese Meteorological Agency. Although the readings were not high, one expert said they did not exclude the possibility the blast could have been a small hydrogen bomb.

Official U.S. reaction was scant. The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission said only that the Chinese test had a yield of "several hundred" kilotons.

By Way Of Mexico

Airlift Bringing 880 U.S. Citizens Back From Cuba

MERIDA, Mexico (AP) — An airlift to bring 880 Americans and 1,820 of their relatives from Cuba to the United States was under way today via Mexico after years of negotiations and delays.

The first group of 89 persons arrived at Merida Wednesday aboard a Mexican DC6 plane and expected to fly to New Orleans today aboard a chartered American plane.

Two more planeloads were expected from Havana today.

Most of the Americans are persons of Latin descent and longtime residence in Cuba who decided to remain there after Fidel Castro took over. When relations between Castro and the United States grew steadily worse and they began trying to get out, they were prevented from leaving.

The flights had been expected to begin three months ago after negotiations by the Swiss ambassador at Havana, who represents U.S. interests there, but Castro vetoed the Swiss efforts. At the end of September, President Johnson reportedly asked Mexican President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz for help, and the Mexican ambassador in Havana, Fernando Pamanes Escobedo, interceded with Castro.

Castro agreed to the airlift on condition that the Americans not leave Cuba on U.S. planes and that their departure not be associated with the Cuban refugee airlift to Miami.

It was stipulated that Mexican planes would take the Americans out of Havana to Merida, in Mexico's Yucatan. New Orleans, rather than Miami, was chosen as the arrival point in the United States.

The agreement was viewed in Havana as an attempt by the Cuban government to ease strained relations with Mexico resulting from Mexico's contention that the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City was coordinating Communist guerrilla activity throughout Latin America.

The first arrivals in Merida spent the night at a motel near the airport and refused to discuss conditions in Cuba with newsmen.

Strikers Snub Return Order At Titanium

TORONTO — Production and maintenance workers at the Titanium Metals, Inc., plant here remained on strike today, even though they have been ordered back to work by the international headquarters of the United Steelworkers.

The men were directed to return to their jobs by I. W. Abel, international president, who sent a telegram to Donald Zamborsky, president of Local 5644.

J. H. (Bud) Entinger district representative, confirmed the walkout was not sanctioned by international, but said he has no knowledge as to what is involved in the dispute. Company officials yesterday termed the walkout a violation of the collective bargaining agreement with the local and sent a telegram to international headquarters seeking immediate action to halt the stoppage.

The company today declined to say what the dispute involves.

The company also filed a petition Wednesday in Jefferson County Common Pleas Court seeking an injunction against the strikers. They asked the strikers be prevented from interfering in any way with persons having business with the company, asked the pickets be limited to two at each entrance and that all loitering and congregating in the area be halted.

The injunction also asks the

Judge, Chief Give Warning To Motorists

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff and Police Chief A. J. Radeschi joined today in a warning that drunken drivers will be dealt with severely on the New Year's weekend.

"Any person who faces me Tuesday morning on charges connected with drinking and driving should be prepared to go to jail," the judge asserted. "We have had five traffic fatalities in the city so far in 1966 and as far as I'm concerned that's too many.

"I don't want to see the New Year begin with a fatal traffic accident caused by an irresponsible driver who takes the wheel after drinking."

The usual penalty given drunken drivers in Municipal Court includes a minimum of three days in jail, a fine of $250 and costs and a 90-day suspension of the operator's permit.

The chief said extra officers will be on duty New Year's Eve and added: "These men will be on a particular lookout for drunken drivers."

"If just one accident can be prevented, the extra work will be worthwhile," he added.

Persons who have been drinking should not attempt to drive home after a holiday party, the chief said. Instead, they should seek a ride with a non-drinking friend or call a taxi, he said.

Defied Court Order

Toledo Workers Face Dismissal

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)— City officials moved today toward dismissal of city workers who defied a court order by remaining off work and picketing city buildings today.

City Manager Frank Backstrom said nine workers arrested Wednesday were due in court today for possible contempt citations on grounds they disobeyed a court order against interfering with city operations.

Common Pleas Judge John Connors Jr. issued a temporary injunction Wednesday directing the 950 members of Local 7 of the Public Employes Union to return to work and to remove picket lines which had kept 300 members of the Teamsters Union off their jobs.

He issued orders for the arrest of 27 pickets after they refused to quit picketing. Officers sought those who had not yet been arrested.

The representative of the employes union, Charles Hendrix, was served with the court injunction Wednesday night, but said he would go to jail rather than end the picketing, which began Wednesday on the union's demand for an 8 per cent pay raise effective Jan. 1. They are scheduled to get a 4 per cent boost Jan. 1.

Backstrom said letters would be sent to absent employes today giving them notice they faced dismissal under a state law forbidding strikes or work stoppages by public employes. Striking workers can be fired 10 days after they are given notice to return to work or face dismissal.

The work stoppage created a traffic crisis Wednesday morning, when snow and ice slicked streets. Major thoroughfares were generally clear today, ice melted by Wednesday's warmth and traffic, but Backstrom said side streets "are pretty dangerous." He said the city recorded more than 100 accidents Wednesday, about twice normal.

He said refuse collection, halted because the Teamsters will not cross the picket lines, would become critical soon, although a private service picks up from hospitals, restaurants, and industries.

Supervisors are keeping water and sewage treatment plants operating.

Backstrom said even more pickets were walking today, despite the court order and the arrests.

Higher Social Security Tax Slated Jan. 1

Will Climb From 4.2 To 4.4, Mostly For Medicare Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government will take a bigger bite of the weekly paycheck beginning next week to help pay for increased Social Security benefits, especially medical care for the elderly.

Social Security taxes will climb from this year's 4.2 per cent rate to 4.4 per cent on Jan. 1 and most of the increase will be used in the medicare program.

Over-all, the increase will add an extra $1 billion to the Social Security trust funds during 1967 but the most any one persons will have to pay is $290.40, up $13.20 from this year.

Of the $13.20 increase, $9.90 will be earmarked for the medical care program and the rest for regular Social Security benefits.

And there's more to come in the years ahead.

Increases in the Social Security tax rate are already built into law through 1987 and any increased benefits voted by Congress could mean even higher taxes.

President Johnson has already made an across-the-board improvement in benefits as a major legislative goal for next year and has the support of both Democratic and Republican leaders.

Next year's bite won't hurt as much as the one last January when not only the tax rate but the earnings on which it is levied were raised. The first $6,600 in earnings will be subject to the tax next year, the same as this year.

But the 1965 tax was based on a rate of 3.625 per cent and earnings of $4,800 for a maximum payment of $174. This rose to $277.20 this year. Of this year's maximum, $23.10 was earmarked for medicare.

Next year, $33 of every maximum payment of $290.40 will go for the medical care program.

This maximum is paid by both the worker and his employer.

Two more planeloads were expected from Havana today.

Most of the Americans are persons of Latin descent and longtime residence in Cuba who decided to remain there after Fidel Castro took over. When relations between Castro and the United States grew steadily worse and they began trying to get out, they were prevented from leaving.

The flights had been expected to begin three months ago after negotiations by the Swiss ambassador at Havana, who represents U.S. interests there, but Castro vetoed the Swiss efforts. At the end of September, President Johnson reportedly asked Mexican President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz for help, and the Mexican ambassador in Havana, Fernando Pamanes Escobedo, interceded with Castro.

Castro agreed to the airlift on condition that the Americans not leave Cuba on U.S. planes and that their departure not be associated with the Cuban refugee airlift to Miami.

It was stipulated that Mexican planes would take the Americans out of Havana to Merida in Mexico's Yucatan. New Orleans, rather than Miami, was chosen as the arrival point in the United States.

The agreement was viewed in Havana as an attempt by the Cuban government to ease strained relations with Mexico resulting from Mexico's contention that the Cuban Embassy in Mexico City was coordinating Communist guerrilla activity throughout Latin America.

The first arrivals in Merida spent the night at a motel near the airport and refused to discuss conditions in Cuba with newsmen.

Accord Nips Strike Threat At Greyhound

CLEVELAND (AP)—A threatened bus strike that could have snarled plans for an estimated 500,000 holiday travelers was averted Wednesday night with the signing of a tentative labor agreement for the Greyhound Bus Lines' eastern division.

Some 5,500 drivers, terminal and maintenance employes who are members of the Amalgamated Transit Union will vote by mail on the new pact. The union turned down a previous agreement by a 2-1 margin.

Vote on the latest agreement is expected to be completed in three weeks.

Details were not disclosed pending the membership vote, but E. C. Nichols, a labor relations director for Greyhound, called it "an honorable contract for both sides."

The agreement was reached after a federal mediator entered the dispute and set up talks which continued into the night.

Negotiations between company and union had been broken off Tuesday in Chicago, and the union set its strike date. The talks resumed here Wednesday.

Greyhound had offered a package it said would provide wage increases amounting to just over five per cent in each year of the contract. The current average pay for drivers was given as $9,600, but Greyhound said some drivers make $12,500.

Strikers Snub Return Order At Titanium

TORONTO — Production and maintenance workers at the Titanium Metals, Inc., plant here remained on strike today, even though they have been ordered back to work by the international headquarters of the United Steelworkers.

The men were directed to return to their jobs by I. W. Abel, international president, who sent a telegram to Donald Zamborsky, president of Local 5644.

J. H. (Bud) Entinger district representative, confirmed the walkout was not sanctioned by international, but said he has no knowledge as to what is involved in the dispute. Company officials yesterday termed the walkout a violation of the collective bargaining agreement with the local and sent a telegram to international headquarters seeking immediate action to halt the stoppage.

The company today declined to say what the dispute involves.

The company also filed a petition Wednesday in Jefferson County Common Pleas Court seeking an injunction against the strikers. They asked the strikers be prevented from interfering in any way with persons having business with the company, asked the pickets be limited to two at each entrance and that all loitering and congregating in the area be halted.

The injunction also asks the St. Clair Ave. Car Collision Hurts Girl, 19

A pickup truck skidded out of control on the new three-lane section of St. Clair Ave. in Maplewood Wednesday night, striking an oncoming car and injuring a 19-year-old girl, police reported.

The crash at 10:13 involved a northbound 1957 truck driven by Alvin F. Howard, 28, of 258 W. 7th St. and a southbound 1965 model sedan operated by Larry R. Ensinger, 19, of Maple Ln., Calcutta.

Miss Linda Ferguson of Calcutta Farms, a passenger in Ensinger's auto, suffered a puncture wound of the right leg. She was treated at City Hospital. Ensinger was treated for a bump on the head.

Howard told Patrolman Karl W. Samples he was following an auto which slowed to make a left turn at Burrows Ave. When he applied his brakes, the truck slid across the street and hit Ensinger's auto. Ensinger said he swerved to the right as far as possible in an unsuccessful attempt to avoid a crash.

The crash caused extensive damage to the left front of each vehicle. Howard was cited on a charge of driving too fast for existing road and weather conditions.

A skid also was blamed for a crash Wednesday at 2:18 p.m. on St. George St. near Mulberry St. that damaged a 1963 four-door sedan and a parked 1950 model auto, police said.

The 1963 car driven by Charles F. Hicks, 19, of 925 St. George St. struck a parked auto owned by Virginia Craig of 1011 St. George St., officers said.

Hicks said his car skidded out of control on icy brick pavement as he turned onto St. George St. from the blacktop surface of Mulberry St. He said his auto "went into a spin" and as he tried to right it, the vehicle struck the Craig auto.

The collision caused heavy damage to the front of the Hicks car, registered to Fred Hicks, also of 925 St. George St. It damaged the left rear fender of the Craig auto.

Democrats Criticize Mrs. Wilson's Firing

The County Democratic Executive Committee today criticized county commissioners for the discharge of Mrs. Grace Wilson of Wellsville, widow of Commissioner Frank C. Wilson and one of six county employes removed from the payroll in action last Friday.

In a statement issued through Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, chairman, the committee said Mrs. Wilson was placed on the payroll following the death of her husband, who had been elected to a four-year term running through 1968. The committee said it feels she should have been allowed to retain the post for a time equivalent to her husband's term.

The committee said it feels Mrs. Wilson should have been retained "regardless of political affiliation — partisanship should not have been allowed to enter into it." Mrs. Wilson was one of four women utility clerks who were notified their jobs will be terminated, effective next Saturday.

Control of the three-man commissioners' board swung back to the Republicans after Mr. Wilson's death.

Statistics reveal that in 60 per cent of the cases of run-away husbands their mothers-in-law live within five miles.

How To Avoid Fighting In Viet

Counseling Centers Due Following Draft Seminar

DETROIT (AP)—Sponsors of a seminar advising youths on how to avoid fighting in Vietnam planned today to set up counseling centers in Detroit where young men can find answers to their questions about the draft.

The day-long seminar concluded with a public rally Wednesday night at which the principal speaker failed to show up and the sponsors were heckled by members of a right-wing organization.

About 200 persons attended the evening session, about twice the number who turned out for panel discussions and workshops earlier in the day. Many of those in the audience were under draft age. Others were parents of boys eligible for the draft or already in the armed forces.

The Rev. David M. Gracie, rector of St. Joseph's Episcopal Church, who served as seminar chairman, said plans were under way to set up counseling services at centers where lawyers and others would answer questions for draft-age youths.

The Rev. Mr. Gracie said sponsors of the seminar were not advocating draft dodging. They were pointing out noncombatant avenues — such as conscientious objections — for those who did not believe the Vietnam war was justified, he said.

Democratic Rep. John Conyers Jr., billed as the main speaker, failed to appear. The Rev. Mr. Gracie said he did not know why Conyers wasn't there. Conyers was not available for comment.

Representatives of "Breakthrough," a militantly conservative organization, passed out leaflets at the meeting, shouted "traitor" and "Communist" at one speaker, and waved a Soviet flag.

New York Lottery Unlikely To Become U.S. Institution

WASHINGTON, D. C. — If and when New York State's proposed lottery gets into operation, it is unlikely to become a national institution like the great Louisiana lottery of the 19th century.

Or, if it does, it will be the result of sub rosa activity.

The reason: Federal law is now tough on the interstate promotion of lotteries. It places strict curbs on the dissemination of lottery news by radio, television or newspapers.

In the Nov. 8 elction, New York State voters gave overwhelming approval to a proposal that the state operate a lottery to help finance education. The 1967 Legislature will face the question of just how to carry out the idea.

Lotteries span many hundreds of years of history, from the drawing of prizes by lot during festivals put on by Roman emprors, down to the Irish Sweepstakes of today. The latter is legal only in Ireland but residents of 147 countries buy more than $40 million worth of tickets annually.

In this country, the Louisiana lottery created a stir in the post-Civil War era. Promoters engaged famous names to act as front men. For a while, the Confederate ex-general, Pierre Gustave Toutant Beauregard, held the post of manager.

As one federal authority on gambling puts it: "This lottery became a frankenstein monster, the real power in the state of Louisiana, with very undesirable results." The lottery closed down in 1894.

Seventy years elapsed before another state, New Hampshire, tried a lottery. This one, based on horse races and with the profits earmarked for education, has been operating since 1964, with diminishing returns.

The take thus far: 1964, $5.73 million; 1965, $3.9 million; 1966, $3.86 million. In the second year of the lottery an additional $617,000 was provided by a federal gambling tax refund.

The amount distributed to the schools was: 1964, $2.7 million; 1965, $2.5 million (including the tax refund); 1966, $1.85 million.

However, the lottery seemingly remains popular with New Hampshire voters. At the November 1966 election, 83.6 per cent of them favored sales of the tickets in their communities.

The Mayor extended greetings to borough residents on behalf of Council for a happy, working and healthy New Year.

Pennsylvania Drivers Warned On Drinking

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania motorists were warned by the Bureau of Traffic Safety Wednesday against the hazards of drinking and driving over the New Year's holiday weekend.

"If you do drink, allow someone who does not drink drive you home," suggested Harry H. Brainerd, state traffic safety commission. "If this is not possible, take a taxi as your best assurance of preventing a needless tragedy."

Brainerd said New Year's is a doubly hazard holiday for motorists because of the drinking usually associated with New Year's parties and the icy road conditions.

Last year, 21 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the 78-hour holiday period.

Bogus Bills Warning Sounded In Pittsburgh

Blue Cross Rate Hike Scheduled To Be Gradual

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — The president of Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania says a 23.4 rate increase will be gradual, and the association will not reap the full benefits of the hike for about a year.

"It will be at least a year before we begin to be back in any kind of financially sound position," said William Ford in an interview Wednesday. "But the losses will not continue indefinitely. Now we have a plug in the bottom of the drain."

He said Blue Cross will lose another $1 million this year.

Plans call for one — twelfth of the subscribers to receive higher rates on Feb. 1, with the others risinf monthly by rotation. Then will begin an annual review of group rates and those having a higher usage rate will be assessed relatively higher rates.

In approving the rate changes Tuesday, state Insurance Commissioner Audrey Kelly ordered that Blue Cross rate adjustments be reviewed annually by the commission.

She also limited the amount of a single increase to 15 per cent.

How To Avoid Fighting In Viet

Counseling Centers Due Following Draft Seminar

DETROIT (AP)—Sponsors of a seminar advising youths on how to avoid fighting in Vietnam planned today to set up counseling centers in Detroit where young men can find answers to their questions about the draft.

The day-long seminar concluded with a public rally Wednesday night at which the principal speaker failed to show up and the sponsors were heckled by members of a right-wing organization.

About 200 persons attended the evening session, about twice the number who turned out for panel discussions and workshops earlier in the day. Many of those in the audience were under draft age. Others were parents of boys eligible for the draft or already in the armed forces.

The Rev. David M. Gracie, rector of St. Joseph's Episcopal Church, who served as seminar chairman, said plans were under way to set up counseling services at centers where lawyers and others would answer questions for draft-age youths.

The Rev. Mr. Gracie said sponsors of the seminar were not advocating draft dodging. They were pointing out noncombatant avenues — such as conscientious objections — for those who did not believe the Vietnam war was justified, he said.

Democratic Rep. John Conyers Jr., billed as the main speaker, failed to appear. The Rev. Mr. Gracie said he did not know why Conyers wasn't there. Conyers was not available for comment.

Representatives of "Breakthrough," a militantly conservative organization, passed out leaflets at the meeting, shouted "traitor" and "Communist" at one speaker, and waved a Soviet flag.

New York Lottery Unlikely To Become U.S. Institution

WASHINGTON, D. C. — If and when New York State's proposed lottery gets into operation, it is unlikely to become a national institution like the great Louisiana lottery of the 19th century.

Or, if it does, it will be the result of sub rosa activity.

The reason: Federal law is now tough on the interstate promotion of lotteries. It places strict curbs on the dissemination of lottery news by radio, television or newspapers.

In the Nov. 8 elction, New York State voters gave overwhelming approval to a proposal that the state operate a lottery to help finance education. The 1967 Legislature will face the question of just how to carry out the idea.

Lotteries span many hundreds of years of history, from the drawing of prizes by lot during festivals put on by Roman emprors, down to the Irish Sweepstakes of today. The latter is legal only in Ireland but residents of 147 countries buy more than $40 million worth of tickets annually.

In this country, the Louisiana lottery created a stir in the post-Civil War era. Promoters engaged famous names to act as front men. For a while, the Confederate ex-general, Pierre Gustave Toutant Beauregard, held the post of manager.

As one federal authority on gambling puts it: "This lottery became a frankenstein monster, the real power in the state of Louisiana, with very undesirable results." The lottery closed down in 1894.

Seventy years elapsed before another state, New Hampshire, tried a lottery. This one, based on horse races and with the profits earmarked for education, has been operating since 1964, with diminishing returns.

The take thus far: 1964, $5.73 million; 1965, $3.9 million; 1966, $3.86 million. In the second year of the lottery an additional $617,000 was provided by a federal gambling tax refund.

The amount distributed to the schools was: 1964, $2.7 million; 1965, $2.5 million (including the tax refund); 1966, $1.85 million.

However, the lottery seemingly remains popular with New Hampshire voters. At the November 1966 election, 83.6 per cent of them favored sales of the tickets in their communities.

The Mayor extended greetings to borough residents on behalf of Council for a happy, working and healthy New Year.

Bills totaling $3,502 were paid. William J. Vinovich Sr. presided.

Council will next meet Jan. 11 at 8 p.m. at the Borough Building.

Pennsylvania Drivers Warned On Drinking

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania motorists were warned by the Bureau of Traffic Safety Wednesday against the hazards of drinking and driving over the New Year's holiday weekend.

"If you do drink, allow someone who does not drink drive you home," suggested Harry H. Brainerd, state traffic safety commission. "If this is not possible, take a taxi as your best assurance of preventing a needless tragedy."

Brainerd said New Year's is a doubly hazard holiday for motorists because of the drinking usually associated with New Year's parties and the icy road conditions.

Last year, 21 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the 78-hour holiday period.

Truth Vital In Vietnam War

We all remember what William Tecumseh Sherman said about war.

At best, it is a nasty, cruel, atrocious thing.

But as Dwight D. Eisenhower said, when asked about the Hanoi bombing by U.S. planes:

"Anyone who is an aggressor cannot be permitted to go scot-free. He must realize he risks punishment."

Nevertheless, a new round of controversy over the Vietnamese war is shaping up following the Pmentagon's acknowledgement that civilian areas of North Vietnam have been damaged by air attacks.

THE MILITARY'S fear is that mounting criticism, with which the administration is ostensibly unable to cope, will force new restrictions on what U.S. pilots can and cannot bomb in North Vietnam.

It is regrettable, of course, that civilians must be numbered among the casualties of war.

The Pentagon insists that no civilian areas are targeted for bombing strikes, and we see no reason to doubt this assurance.

But when antiaircraft batteries, fuel supplies, radar and other military facilities are erected in the midst of heavily populated areas there is no way to avoid all damage to residential concentrations.

The point on which our government is vulnerable is its denial that such strikes were being carried out, that civilian populations were, in fact, coming under attack and suffering heavy damage and high casualties.

Not until a New York Times reporter, with an eyewitness account, disclosed the awful price civilians were paying in life and property in the built-up areas around Hanoi did the Pentagon offer any confirmation.

Truth in government and the credibility of reports from Vietnam will be under heavy fire from now on. If the American public is to react intelligently to our conduct of foreign affairs the least it is entitled to is the truth, distasteful though it may be at times.

THE LACK OF credibiliy might be the mere slipshod handling of dispatches from Saigon, but we doubt it.

The military is well aware of the course of the war. Some information must, of necessity, be classified to protect movement of troops in the best interests of our fighting forces and the strategy of waging war.

The Pentagon has freely admitted accidental bombings of our own troops and of friendly Vietnamese villagers.

We see no good reason for denying charges of our enemies that are based on fact, even if exaggerated.

This we believe to be especially vital in a war that does not have the support of large segments of our citizenry, such as our adventure in Vietnam, where no one can clearly establish that even a mapority of Vietnamese people want us there.

Fighting The Leash

An arbitrary decision by the Internal Revenue Service that contributions to the Sierra Club will no longer be tax deductible smacks of coercion.

First there was the threat of withdrawal of this tax deductible status if the club persisted in its opposition to federal plans for dams in the Grand Canyon.

The Sierra Club, a 46,000-member nationwide conservation organization continued its opposition to this and other federal proposals for development of natural resources administered by the government.

We do not always agree with the Sierra Club's point of view. But, we believe the club consistently advances the view that reflects the opinion of its membership.

For a very good reason contributions to the Sierra Club were declared tax exempt. It was to encourage contributors to give to an organization that has been given a role in our society. The role of fighting a rearguard action to protect nature's wonders against the encroachment of progress.

It is only to be assumed that in waging this battle the club will find itself in conflict with the policy and programs of The Establishment. Otherwise there is no need for such an organization. We think it not only wrong but cowardly to seek to silence the Sierra Club's guns with a threat that could cut deeply into the organization's financial backing.

The Sierra Club has vowed to battle the tentative IRS ruling. We wish it well in its fight against this bureaucratic autocracy that would rewrite the rules whenever an organization or individual does not "heel."

Sound Choice

John W. (Dyke) Wilson's appointment as chief engineer of the Highway Department to succeed C. H. Makeever who is retiring Jan. 10, is a good choice by State Highway Director Pearl E. Masheter.

Mr. Makeever's retirement follows about 30 years of devoted service to the development of Ohio's highways, part of which time was spent in Division 11 in the New Philadelphia area.

He had retired in 1959, but returned to work at Highway Director Masheter's request in 1963.

Mr. Wilson's tenure with the State Highway Department dates back almost 30 years. For the last four years he has served as deputy director of planning and programming for the highway department, which is one of the most difficult tasks in the state.

His successor as acting director in that post will be Harry Myers, who has been chief of the planning bureau and one of the most knowledgeable men in the state on highway matters.

The Jury's Still Out

By Barry Schweid

Liberal critics of the Supreme Court — and there are some — may be a little premature in writing off the 1966-67 term as one in which the justices swung toward conservatism or backed off on big issues.

True, the justices were unwilling this year to plunge into a squabble over the traditional exemption of church property from taxation, to say whether the right to counsel applies in minor criminal cases or even to deal with organized baseball's hallowed immunity from anti-trust law.

And decisions approving convictions of Negro civil rights demonstrators, the use of a paid government informer to help convict Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa of jury tampering and selection of Georgia's next governor by a legislature held malapportioned did not ring bells in liberal circles.

BUT THE TERM is not even half over and three cases the justices already have decided to hear have within them the seeds of activist rulings that have made the Warren court anathema to conservatives.

Two are at the very nerve center of civil rights emotions: housing discrimination and bans in some states on racially - mixed marriages. The third, electronic eavesdropping, is critically important to civil libertarians — and prosecutors.

California relators will be attacking a California Supreme Court decision that voided a voters-approved ban on open housing laws.

If the California court is upheld, the justices may lay down a broad finding that the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution either bars housing discrimination or at least requires states to act to bar legislated discrimination.

The same amendment's guarantee of equal protection under the law may serve to strike down Virginia's ban on interracial marriage and, by extension, similar laws in 17 other states.

AN APPEAL from the Virginia anti-miscegenation law, filed on behalf of a mixed couple by the American Civil Liberties Union, appears broad enough to provide a basis for junking such laws in the 18 states — if the justices are of a mind to.

The eavesdropping appeal before the court also may be broad enought for the justices to expand the area covered by the search- and-seizure provisions of the Fourth Amendment.

But they could confine their ruling to narrower grounds: In this case whether New York City prosecutors made an adequate showing of "probable cause" when they obtained state court permission to "bug" a suspect in a liquor license scandal.

Until the decisions in these three cases come down, the jury judging the justices may well be considered out.

Slowdown Sentiment

By Walter R. Mears

WASHINGTON

There's a slowdown sentiment among Democrats and it could help create a season of caution and reflection on Capitol Hill.

Still in congressional command despite a stinging election setback, the Democrats themselves seem worried about the shape of the "Great Society" programs they produced for President Johnson.

Its most explosive expression came Dec. 15, when 18 Democratic governors talked until midnight at White Suphur Springs, W. Va., and agreed that the Great Society is moving too fast for the voters' taste.

They blamed anti-administration sentiment for the election returns which gave Republicans 47 new seats in the House, 3 in the Senate and 8 governorships.

"I THINK the programs are coming too fast, without proper crystallization and organization," said Gov. Otto Kerner of Illinois.

And complaints about the administration of Johnson - launched programs apparently dominated the President's 4½-hour talk with nine of the party's governors at the LBJ Ranch a week ago.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield has harshly criticized the governors' political assault on Johnson. But Mansfield, too, is a member of the slowdown school.

He said his words of caution — in a letter to Senate committee chairmen — were not prompted by election day setbacks or by the governors' grumbling.

Mansfield said he had been urging for more than a year that Congress slow down and assess what it has done.

On Jan. 7, just before the last session convened, Mansfield said Congress probably would face only a limited agenda of presidential requests, "because we passed so much legislation last session.

"It's time to stop, look and listen now," he said then. It didn't turn out that way.

NOW MANSFIELD has offered the same message on the eve of the 90th Congress. He told the committee chairmen it should be a session of "dispassionate restudy" and a thorough, second-look at major domestic programs.

It is against this backdrop, and with a 90th Congress in which Republicans will have the House voting power to influence more significantly the shape and pace of legislation, that President Johnson is working now on his budget and his plans for the year ahead.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

In the primary elections of 1964, Sen. Barry Goldwater received the electoral votes to give him the Republican presidential nomination.

In his campaign for electoral votes in most every state, Nelson Rockefeller was defeated by Goldwater.

This defeat apparently embittered "Rocky" and he immediately set out to assail and contribute to Goldwater's defeat.

He, with Romney, Lodge, Scranton, Hugh Scott and "neutral Eisenhower," formed the stop "Goldwater Movement." After a noisy, humilitating defeat at the convention in an effort to nominate Scranton, they assailed Goldwater as "trigger happy" and not to be trusted from a military viewpoint.

Now, Romney and Rockefeller are talking "consensus and leadership" with the hope of inviting the party they helped split. This they cannot do, in my opinion. The voters who nominated Sen. Goldwater will make a choice in 1968 and it will not be one of those who bolted the party in 1964.

It is too soon to pick a candidate yet, but I shall hope and pray that we elect a man who will listen to his earthly advisers and be guided from above.

Showdown Due

By David Lawrence

States U. S. Must Cooperate

There is more involved than mere politics in President Johnson's conference with nine Democratic governors at Austin. The Republican governors moreover, have also just gotten together and formed an association with headquarters in Washington.

What is indicated is an approaching showdown in the relations between the federal government and the states of the Union. They can no longer work at cross-purposes without producing widespread discontent and dissatisfaction. The time has arrived for co-operation between the states and the federal government but nobody has yet produced a formula that the political partisans are willing to accept.

Obviously the federal government cannot do the whole job of building a better life for the peoples of all states whether or not their own taxpayers in each case can foot the bill. Nor has the problem of effective administration been solved.

If the governors of the states as well as congressmen look upon federal money as a political "pork barrel," more and more protests from the electorate can be expected. Already the big city bosses have become enmeshed in the anti-poverty programs and local politicians have been demanding larger sums of money from Washington.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON in a single day's conference could by no means tackle the knotty questions that have emerged. The Republican governors, by establishing a "task force" in Washington, may be able to present some constructive proposals of their own but real progress will not be made until there is agreement as to what the states should do and what the federal government should supply by way of funds or personnel in the various programs.

Within the past few years, the national government has, by the witholding of funds, undertaken to discipline the states for failing to desegregate public schools. Quite a hassle is going on currently as to whether an executive department in Washington can operate virtually a blackmail system and deny funds to local agencies unless the bureaucratic ideas of federal officials on various subjects are accepted.

With the enormous growth of population in the United States, the problems of urban development. New transit systems, better schools and the training of manpower have come to the fore. Many billions of dollars, it's now being estimated, will be required for such projects.

ONE OF THE MOST interesting suggestions being made by economists is that the federal government should return to the states a large percentage of federal taxes to be used in making needed reforms. The real difficulty is that no administrative machinery has as yet been devised for federal co-operation with state and city governments. This is directly related to the amount of taxpayers' money to be turned over to the states or to be retained by the federal government. Much depends in turn upon the kind of projects which will be administered locally and those for which the federal government will have to be primarily responsible.

All sorts of complaints already are heard about squabbles among local government officials. The prospect of billions of dollars being spent in any area is enough to tempt the politicians to insist upon a substantial share of the money and the handling of it for their own localities. Some agency of government will have to decide priorities. Many persons believe the task is one that will never be carried out to the satisfaction of either the states or the federal government as long as political pressures prevail.

POLITICAL INFLUENCES are inevitable, however, as long as discretionary powers are written into the laws. Some new administrative arrangements under a decentralized or regional system will have to be developed and explicitly defined in each program. There is no longer a sharp line of separation in practice between federal powers and states' rights. A constitutional amendment may be found necessary because today the federal government is supposed to exercise only the powers specifically delegated to it or those explicitly prohibited to the states. All other rights and powers are reserved to the states or to the people.

Truth Vital In Vietnam War

We all remember what William Tecumseh Sherman said about war.

At best, it is a nasty, cruel, atrocious thing.

But as Dwight D. Eisenhower said, when asked about the Hanoi bombing by U.S. planes:

"Anyone who is an aggressor cannot be permitted to go scot-free. He must realize he risks punishment."

Nevertheless, a new round of controversy over the Vietnamese war is shaping up following the Pmentagon's acknowledgement that civilian areas of North Vietnam have been damaged by air attacks.

THE MILITARY'S fear is that mounting criticism, with which the administration is ostensibly unable to cope, will force new restrictions on what U.S. pilots can and cannot bomb in North Vietnam.

It is regrettable, of course, that civilians must be numbered among the casualties of war.

The Pentagon insists that no civilian areas are targeted for bombing strikes, and we see no reason to doubt this assurance.

But when antiaircraft batteries, fuel supplies, radar and other military facilities are erected in the midst of heavily populated areas there is no way to avoid all damage to residential concentrations.

The point on which our government is vulnerable is its denial that such strikes were being carried out, that civilian populations were, in fact, coming under attack and suffering heavy damage and high casualties.

Not until a New York Times reporter, with an eyewitness account, disclosed the awful price civilians were paying in life and property in the built-up areas around Hanoi did the Pentagon offer any confirmation.

Truth in government and the credibility of reports from Vietnam will be under heavy fire from now on. If the American public is to react intelligently to our conduct of foreign affairs the least it is entitled to is the truth, distasteful though it may be at times.

THE LACK OF credibiliy might be the mere slipshod handling of dispatches from Saigon, but we doubt it.

The military is well aware of the course of the war. Some information must, of necessity, be classified to protect movement of troops in the best interests of our fighting forces and the strategy of waging war.

The Pentagon has freely admitted accidental bombings of our own troops and of friendly Vietnamese villagers.

We see no good reason for denying charges of our enemies that are based on fact, even if exaggerated.

This we believe to be especially vital in a war that does not have the support of large segments of our citizenry, such as our adventure in Vietnam, where no one can clearly establish that even a mapority of Vietnamese people want us there.

Fighting The Leash

An arbitrary decision by the Internal Revenue Service that contributions to the Sierra Club will no longer be tax deductible smacks of coercion.

First there was the threat of withdrawal of this tax deductible status if the club persisted in its opposition to federal plans for dams in the Grand Canyon.

The Sierra Club, a 46,000-member nationwide conservation organization continued its opposition to this and other federal proposals for development of natural resources administered by the government.

We do not always agree with the Sierra Club's point of view. But, we believe the club consistently advances the view that reflects the opinion of its membership.

For a very good reason contributions to the Sierra Club were declared tax exempt. It was to encourage contributors to give to an organization that has been given a role in our society. The role of fighting a rearguard action to protect nature's wonders against the encroachment of progress.

It is only to be assumed that in waging this battle the club will find itself in conflict with the policy and programs of The Establishment. Otherwise there is no need for such an organization. We think it not only wrong but cowardly to seek to silence the Sierra Club's guns with a threat that could cut deeply into the organization's financial backing.

The Sierra Club has vowed to battle the tentative IRS ruling. We wish it well in its fight against this bureaucratic autocracy that would rewrite the rules whenever an organization or individual does not "heel."

Sound Choice

John W. (Dyke) Wilson's appointment as chief engineer of the Highway Department to succeed C. H. Makeever who is retiring Jan. 10, is a good choice by State Highway Director Pearl E. Masheter.

Mr. Makeever's retirement follows about 30 years of devoted service to the development of Ohio's highways, part of which time was spent in Division 11 in the New Philadelphia area.

He had retired in 1959, but returned to work at Highway Director Masheter's request in 1963.

Mr. Wilson's tenure with the State Highway Department dates back almost 30 years. For the last four years he has served as deputy director of planning and programming for the highway department, which is one of the most difficult tasks in the state.

His successor as acting director in that post will be Harry Myers, who has been chief of the planning bureau, and one of the most knowledgeable men in the state on highway matters.

The Jury's Still Out

By Barry Schweid

Liberal critics of the Supreme Court — and there are some — may be a little premature in writing off the 1966-67 term as one in which the justices swung toward conservatism or backed off on big issues.

True, the justices were unwilling this year to plunge into a squabble over the traditional exemption of church property from taxation, to say whether the right to counsel applies in minor criminal cases or even to deal with organized baseball's hallowed immunity from anti-trust law.

And decisions approving convictions of Negro civil rights demonstrators, the use of a paid government informer to help convict Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa of jury tampering and selection of Georgia's next governor by a legislature held malapportioned did not ring bells in liberal circles.

BUT THE TERM is not even half over and three cases the justices already have decided to hear have within them the seeds of activist rulings that have made the Warren court anathema to conservatives.

Two are at the very nerve center of civil rights emotions: housing discrimination and bans in some states on racially - mixed marriages. The third, electronic eavesdropping, is critically important to civil libertarians — and prosecutors.

California relators will be attacking a California Supreme Court decision that voided a voters-approved ban on open housing laws.

If the California court is upheld, the justices may lay down a broad finding that the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution either bars housing discrimination or at least requires states to act to bar legislated discrimination.

The same amendment's guarantee of equal protection under the law may serve to strike down Virginia's ban on interracial marriage and, by extension, similar laws in 17 other states.

AN APPEAL from the Virginia anti-miscegenation law, filed on behalf of a mixed couple by the American Civil Liberties Union, appears broad enough to provide a basis for junking such laws in the 18 states — if the justices are of a mind to.

The eavesdropping appeal before the court also may be broad enought for the justices to expand the area covered by the search- and-seizure provisions of the Fourth Amendment.

But they could confine their ruling to narrower grounds: In this case whether New York City prosecutors made an adequate showing of "probable cause" when they obtained state court permission to "bug" a suspect in a liquor license scandal.

Until the decisions in these three cases come down, the jury judging the justices may well be considered out.

Author-Editor Clings To Life After Gallbladder Operation

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Author-editor Harry Golden, under the constant watch of his personal physician, clung to life this morning following removal of his infected gallbladder.

A spokesman at Charlotte's Memorial Hospital said the humorist, 64, also "was experiencing respiratory difficulties," and that a tracheotomy had been performed to ease his breathing.

Golden underwent surgery Tuesday night after becoming ill at his Charlotte home Monday. He had returned to Charlotte the day before from Flat Rock, N.C., where he had spent Christmas Day with his friend, poet Carl Sandburg.

Golden, the editor of the Carlina Israelite which he founded in Charlotte in 1942, has long been a champion of civil rights.

He has used many of his boyhood memories from New York City's Lower East Side, where he was born, in his newspaper and books.

In addition to "Only in America," — a best seller in 1958 — he has had published other popular collections of Goldenisms — "For 2 Cents Plain" and "Enjoy, Enjoy." He also wrote a biography of Sandburg.

ishment on the Communists until they halt their aggression."

He said that at present, it appears the war "could drag on for years with neither side gaining victory." Russell said he originally opposed U.S. intervention but that now the U.S. commitment should be supported.

An opponent of U.S. Vietnam policy, Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., said in a statement that civilian casualties have united North Vietnam in its "determination to resist American military power."

Morse said a series of New York Times stories from Hanoi on civilian casualties "have widened the credibility gap into a worldwide chasm between the United States and the rest of the world on the subject of our air attacks."

The State Department said Wednesday it has granted 57 Americans permission to go to North Vietnam, an increase of four over the last announced figure. Most are newsmen.

North Vietnam has admitted few persons on the State Department list, but has granted visas to some Americans who did not have U.S. permission to visit that country.

North Vietnam has granted entry permits to Harrison E. Salisbury of the New York Times and Louis Lomax, a West Coast television commentator, whom the State Department okayed.

Salisbury's stories of civilian casualties have stirred the latest round of controversy.

A U.S. flier who has bombed the town of Nam Dinh disagreed with some of Salisbury's reports from that town 50 miles southeast of Hanoi.

Cmdr. Robert C. Mandeville, commander of Navy Attack Squadron 65, told the Norfolk, Va., Ledger-Star that targets in Nam Dinh were mainly "a large trans-shipment area on the banks of the river, a fuel area on the delta east of town and rail yards to the west."

Salisbury had quoted the town's mayor as saying it was "essentially a cotton-and-silk textile town containing nothing of military significance."

He reported that 89 persons have been killed, 405 wounded and homes of 12,464 destroyed.

Mandeville said his fliers regarded the town as one of the most dangerous objectives in North Vietnam because of heavy defenses.

regiments of South Vietnamese troops, including 1,000 or more paratroopers who jumped unopposed into canal-laced paddies 126 miles southwest of Saigon.

A Vietnamese military spokesman said Viet Cong casualties remained at 89 killed, the number announced Wednesday for the initial two days. All were attributed to air strikes and infantrymen. The spokesman said the paratroopers had failed to engage enemy units so far.

The U.S. military command reported American troop strength in South Vietnam reached 376,000 last Saturday, an increase of 5,000 men over the previous week.

The command also announced U.S. casualties last week were 109 killed and 574 wounded, compared with 88 killed and 433 wounded the week before.

Vietnamese headquarters reported 203 government soldiers killed last week compared with 190 in the previous week. Communist casualties last week were placed at 1,083 killed and 198 captured, the week before 860 enemy killed and 98 captured were reported.

Rain and generally poor weather again curtailed U.S. bombing of North Vietnam Wednesday. American pilots flew 70 strike missions, most of them in the southern part of North Vietnam. Pilots reported setting afire the Nam Dinh rail yards 37 miles southwest of Haiphong and, in strikes elsewhere, damaging or destroying three antiaircraft sites, five barges and four storage areas.

The U.S. command reported two Army helicopters shot down by Communist ground fire Wednesday. U.S. spokesmen said five men were injured.

U.S. gunship helicopters continued their campaign against supply- laden Viet Cong sampans close to Saigon, and chopper crews reported sinking 22 more 18 miles south of the capital. This raised to 196 the number of sampans sunk in the last three days in the helicopter drive to intercept movement of rice and other supplies.

In Saigon, the Vietnamese Labor Confederation called a 12-hour general strike Friday in sympathy with striking Vietnamese dock workers. The dock workers are protesting the replacement of several hundred Vietnamese stevedores by U.S. Army men at the new American military harbor installation near Saigon known as New Port.

U.S. B52 bombers struck before dawn today at a Communist supply area and troop concentration in Binh Thuan Province, on the central coast 21 miles northeast of the provincial capital of Phan Thiet.

The New Year's truce is scheduled to start at 7 a.m. Saturday Saigon time, 6 p.m. EST Friday, and run until 7 a.m. Monday. A similar 48-hour truce over Christmas weekend was marred by 122 incidents of gunfire, small clashes and terrorist activity.

By Mistake, Reagan Takes Oath As California Governor

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — By mistake, and in the most casual fashion, Ronald Reagan already has taken his formal oath as California's 33rd governor.

The Republican governor-elect thought he was signing a routine loyalty oath when the document was read to him by a deputy secretary of state in Reagan's Sacramento office on Tuesday, an aide said.

But it turned out to be California's oath of office, which consists largely of a pledge to uphold the constitutions of California and the United States and not to try to overthrow the government.

"No one thought it was a swearing-in procedure," said Lyn Nofziger, Reagan's press secretary, "but he did raise his hand and affirm what had to be affirmed. But it was not fully explained to him."

Bert Clinkston, deputy secretary of state, said, "when I got there, I assumed that he had been briefed but nevertheless told him, 'This is the document that will officially make you governor.' Then he went ahead with the oath."

Reagan already had made careful plans to take the oath in the capitol rotunda at 12:01 a.m. Jan. 2. The sooner the better, he said, to assure continuity of government.

Reagan will go ahead anyway with the 12:01 a.m. swearing in before newsmen and about 150 invited guests. He'll also hold a public inaugural Jan. 5.

"It isn't going to change anything," Nofziger said.

Motorist, 78, Fined $15 In Car Collision

A 78-year-old Canton man whose car was involved in a collision Tuesday on the Freeway underneath the Newell Bridge was fined $15 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of reckless driving.

Nick G. Florea pleaded guilty to the charge filed by Patrolman James W. Buckley as an aftermath of a crash that involved the Canton man's 1962 sedan and a 1967 model coupe operated by Homer Patzer, 54, of Columbus.

Buckley testified that Florea made a U-turn on the four-lane highway, pulling into the path of Patzer's auto. A woman passenger in Patzer's auto was treated at City Hospital.

Meanwhile, the judge granted a continuance until Jan. 5 in the case of Curtis R. Creel, 71, of 1252 Erie St., who was charged with failure to yield the right - of - way after a collision Dec. 21 on Pennsylvania Ave. east of Boyce St. which damaged his auto and a motorcycle.

The judge granted additional time to the defendant after he indicated he wishes to settle for damages to the motorcycle of George W. Blackwell, 17, of Toronto. Creel was represented by Donald E. Smith.

Lester M. Welker of Morrisdale, Pa., was fined $5 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a charge he crashed a traffic signal at 3rd and Market Sts. He was cited Wednesday at 11:25 p. m. by Patrolman Karl W. Samples, police said.

Three motorists cited on speeding charges by the State Highway Patrol forfeited $17.50 appearance bonds.

They are: Ralph J. Moore of Darlington R. D. 2 and Keith D. Moore of Freedom R. D. 1, both cited Dec. 16 on the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. on charges of driving 60 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone, and James H. Morrison of Akron, arrested Saturday on Route 30 on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Stennis Says 'Very Bad Situation'

Senate To Launch Probe Into Shortage Of Pilots

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Senate Preparedness subcommittee will launch a detailed investigation next year into pilot shortages in the armed services, sources revealed today.

The subcommittee, headed by Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., is reliably reported to be in the process now of deciding whether to hold a special hearing on the pilot problem or incorporate the investigation into its annual probe of readiness.

"I think we're in a very bad situation," one subcommittee source said. "We've got a very severe shortage of pilots and it's going to become worse at our rate of loss."

About 300 planes have been shot down over North Vietnam as of Dec. 14; more than 150 were lost there in 1965.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, in a move to ward off even greater shortages, has approved sharp increases in pilot training for the Navy, Air Force and Army.

The boosts have not been officially spelled out yet, but Pentagon sources said they should produce an extra 8,000 pilots next fiscal year — most of them for Army helicopters. McNamara also granted the Air Force and Army an additional pilot training base and provided funds for the Navy to expand its present facilities.

Subcommittee officials acknowledged that the increased training rates should help, but described them as too little, too late.

The Navy now orders its men to serve two six-month tours in Southeast Asia; in 1968 it will either have to extend the length of duty tours, call for a third tour or call up the Reserves.

The Air Force and Army both are trying to limit their men to one Southeast Asia tour of duty.

In the Army's case, many men have been sent back for a second time. The Air Force has avoided this thus far by cutting back on the number of pilots permitted to attend graduate or military schools and plucking fliers from staff jobs around the world.

The Navy and Army have eased their problems temporarily by involuntarily freezing some pilots on duty for an additional year.

Dog License Applications Will Go In Mail On Friday

LISBON — Dog license application forms will be mailed Friday to approximately 12,000 Columbiana County residents, Auditor Kenneth Bell has announced.

The 1967 tags will go on sale Tuesday in the dog license department at the Courthouse. A record 17,147 tags were sold this year.

A license is required for any dog over three months old. The fee will be $2 per dog and $10 for a kennel—the same as this year.

A $1 penalty will be charged dog owners who have not obtained licenses by Jan. 20. The penalty for kennel owners is $5.

Dog owners may complete the transaction by mail by filling in the application form and returning it and the fee to the dog license department. The tag and certificate will be forwarded to the owner promptly, Bell said.

Owners also may apply for licenses at any of 35 agencies in 16 communities. They should take with them the entire form they received in the mail, Bell added.

Contracts Let For Supplies In Levy Vote

The Columbiana County Election Board, at a special meeting Wednesday afternoon in its W. 6th St. office, awarded ballot and poll book contracts and made other preparations for a special election Jan. 24 in the Southern Local School District on a 4½-mill levy that was rejected at the Nov. 8 general election.

The Wellsville Publishing Co. of Wellsville was awarded the contract to furnish ballots on its lone bid of $130.43.

The Columbus Blank Book Co. of Columbus received the contract to furnish poll books at $17.50 per precinct. The district has 13 precincts. The only other bid was received from the Johnson - Watson Printing Co. of Dayton. It offered the poll books at $21.80 per precinct.

The board decided that it will utilize the so-called "economy plan" allowed by state law for special elections, employing only four judges and clerks for each precinct. Six judges and clerks are employed in each polling place at full - scale elections. The reduction in personnel will mean a saving to the school district, which will be billed for most of the expense of the special election.

In addition to Columbiana County, the district overlaps slightly into neighboring Jefferson and Carroll Counties. The Brush Creek Precinct of Jefferson County will participate in the election. A few voters in Fox Township of Carroll County who reside in the school district will vote in the Salineville Precinct of Columbiana County.

All four members of the board attended. It is comprised of Carl L. Stacey, chairman, and Don R. Gosney, both of Columbiana, Charles Pike of Lisbon and G. William Brokaw of East Liverpool.

Youth Will Face Grand Jurors In Hancock County

Thomas C. Durbin, 18, who lists addresses of the East Liverpool YMCA and Waterford Park, has been bound over to the January term of the Hancock County Grand Jury on four charges of forgery.

He is being detained at the County Jail in New Cumberland, in default of $2,000 bond.

Squire John D. Herron bound Durbin to the grand jury Wednesday after arraigning him on the forgery charges last Friday.

He was picked up last week in Columbiana County by West Virginia officials after he waived extradition. Durbin had been serving a 30-day sentence for larceny in the Columbiana County Jail after he pleaded no contest to a charge of stealing a television set, toys and two fruitcakes from a parked car outside a California Hollow tavern.

Walkaway Stays At County Home

LISBON — A "walkaway" from Massillon State Hospital spent Christmas night at the Columbiana County Home.

Joe Kampfer, the County Home farm boss, stopped for the man walking on Route 172 near Tritten's farm late Sunday afternoon, thinking he might be one of the home residents.

When the hiker appeared frightened and would not speak, Kampfer drove to the home and returned with help to get the stranger in the car.

Supt. Robert Boyce said the man appeared "scared to death of men," but would talk to the nurses' aides at the hospital unit. They found out his name was Milford Weir and that he had resided in this area years ago.

Boyce said the man wore institutional clothing, but the tags did not identify the institution. The sheriff's office had no reports of missing persons, so Boyce called Massillon State Hospital and found Weir was on its rolls. Massillon hospital personnel came for him Monday.

Industry Church To Hold Services

"Heralding in of the New" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Oscar Arnal Sunday during 11 a. m., services in the Ohio View Lutheran Church of Industry. Sacraments of the altar will be observed.

The Adult Fellowship Class will meet at 9:30 a. m. to study "God Raised Him from the Dead."

Theodore Steiner and Edgar Snyder will be ushers for January and Charles Henderson will serve as chief greeter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fiediga of the Social Action Committee will visit the sick this week.

Wednesday evening Bible Study will resume next Wednesday in the church hall.

The Christmas tree in the church decorated by members of the Luther League was donated by Ellsworth Nicol.

Gary Lovejoy of Midland, bass soloist, sang "Sweet Little Jesus Boy" at the Christmas Eve service. Mrs. C. L. Deffenbaugh was organist.

Mrs. Oscar Arnal, nursery chairman, announced the following schedule: Jan. 1, Mrs. Homer Gifford; Jan. 8, Mrs. Laco Shreve; Jan. 15, Mrs. Fiediga; Jan. 22, Mrs. Arnal, and Jan. 29, Mrs. Helen Graham.

Luther Leaguers caroled throughout the Industry and Midland areas Friday. The league will meet Sunday at 7 p. m. in church hall.

Girl Hit By Car In Lisbon Mishap

LISBON — Maxine Chuck, 12-year-old daughter of Edward and June Chuck of 623 E. Chestnut St., apparently escaped serious injury when struck by a car at 3:20 p. m. Wednesday on E. Lincoln Way.

The driver, John Amato of 1227 Commerce St., Wellsville, reported the accident to Chief of Police Leon T. Zahrndt and said he would take the girl to a doctor. Amato reported the girl stepped out from behind a car.

Maxine directed Amato to her home, where they got her mother and went to the local clinic. Mrs. Chuck said Maxine received abrasions of the right leg and apparently had been knocked down, because her slacks were dirty. The doctor took X-rays and told Maxine to stay off the leg. She is a fifth-grader at McKinley School.

Mrs. Chuck said Maxine told her she was alone and was crossing Lincoln Way from the round corner to Morgan's Drugstore.

Fined On 2 Counts

LISBON — Elwood Garwood, 41, of Lisbon pleaded guilty Wednesday night before Mayor Dean Stockman to two counts of disturbing the peace and was fined $10 and costs and $20 and costs. The offenses occurred Saturday night and Tuesday night.

Fire Sweeps Area Trailer

LISBON — Fire destroyed a new house trailer last midnight at the "Y" at Routes 30 and 172, two miles west of here.

The blaze dislodged Mrs. Martina Gardner and her three children — Jacqueline, 5; Jerry, 7, and Patty Jo, 8.

They took refuge with her brother-in-law and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Gardner, on whose property the trailer is located.

Lisbon firemen extinguished the blaze, but reported the inside a total loss.

Mrs. Gardner purchased the trailer several months ago. It is insured, she said, and the family thinks some of the contents can be salvaged.

Firemen said the blaze may have started from the oil furnace or an electrical short. Mrs. Gardner heard a sputtering sound and smelled smoke. By the time she roused the children and got them to the Gardner home next door the trailer was on fire.

Warnings Given For Tidal Wave In North Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — Earth tremors continued to shake northern Chile during the night, and there were warnings of a possible tidal wave if an undersea volcano continued erupting 25 miles off shore.

The volcano spit sheets of fire from the ocean bottom Wednesday about the same time that a mighty earthquake rolled across 1,000 miles of the copper-rich coastal area.

The quake destroyed much of the old nitrate port of Taltal, where three persons were reported killed so far and two others missing. Dozens were injured and an estimated 4,000 persons were left homeless in the provinces of Antofagasta, Atacama and Tarpaca. Three million persons live in the area.

Residents of Taltal, which has a population of 10,000 said huge flames spurted from the ocean depths when the quake struck at 4:18 a.m. Old, one-story structures of mud bricks and wood collapsed in the town amid big clouds of dust, and thousands fled toward the neighboring hills with the shaking earth slipping beneath their feet.

The first quake registered 8 on a scale of 12 and light tremors continued Wednesday night. The navy warned that if the volcano continued erupting, a tidal wave could flood Taltal and other coastal areas.

The quake was felt in Santiago, the capital 600 miles south of the epicenter, but no damage was reported.

The $700-million copper installations of the U.S. Anaconda Co. in Atacama and Antofagasta Provinces also were reported undamaged.

Veterans' Group Will Hold Dinner

All World War I veterans are invited, according to Harry H. Ferrall of Leetonia R. D. 2, chairman of the county group which is sponsored by Columbiana's Benjamin Firestone Post 290 of the American Legion.

"You don't have to belong to the Legion or any other service-connected organization," Ferrall points out to veterans. "Just come and enjoy the fellowship."

Veterans who did not make reservations for Jan. 12 at the last meeting in Leetonia may reserve a place by calling Ferrall no later than Jan. 9.

Welfare Workers OK 2 Issues Tentatively

CLEVELAND (AP) — Tentative agreement on union recognition and grievance procedures has been reached in the strike by Cuyahoga County welfare workers, but negotiators remained deadlocked on the main issue — wages.

Negotiations were scheduled to resume today as the strike by 400 of the county's 1,500 welfare workers entered its eighth day.

County Welfare Director Eugene F. Burns placed a $1.1 million price tag on the wage demands of Local 1746, State, County and Municipal Employes Union. The union represents the strikers.

Al Bilik, assistant to the international union president, countered that the welfare workers were poorly paid and that they had a lot of catching up to do to reach a decent standard of living.

Major Snow Storm Swirls Into East U.S.

By The Associated Press

A major snow storm which curtailed travel and disrupted normal activities over much of the Midwest, swirled into the East today.

Snow continued in most of Upper Michigan and northern Lower Michigan but only light snow or flurries were reported in other parts of the north central region. Skies were clear in most of the Plains states.

More than three feet of snow was reported in Marquette, Mich., and heavy snow warnings were in effect for northern Lower Michigan and eastern Upper Michigan Strong winds caused much drifting in Upper Michigan.

The storm which struck the Midwest Tuesday left more than a foot of snow in parts of Kansas, Nebraska and Minnesota. Nearly a foot of snow closed roads and slowed traffic in other Midwest states.

The storm, powered by gusty winds, spread over most of western Pennsylvania and parts of New York State and Virginia and into Washington, D.C., and areas in New England.

Many areas in the East still were digging out from a heavy snow that fell several days ago.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said hazardous-driving conditions had been posted for a 13-state area from Virginia to New England. The bureau said the outlook was for snow, sleet and freezing rain over much of the Northeast today and tonight.

At least six persons, three in Rochester, Minn., two in Chicago and one in Rockford, Ill., died, apparently of heart attacks, while shoveling snow.

Outside the snow belts, showers and thunderstorms splashed much of the Southeast. More than one inch of rain fell at Tallahassee, Fla., in six hours and nearly an inch fell in many areas from eastern Alabama to western North Carolina.

More rain was reported in the Far Northwest and light snow fell in parts of the northern Rockies. Mostly clear skies prevailed in other sections of the country.

Early Payday Slated For Municipal Staff

Paychecks for the last half of December will be issued to city officials and employes Saturday afternoon between 1 and 3, Auditor Lawrence Zollinger and Treasurer Bert A. Dawson said today.

The checks will be issued at the auditor's office, although other City Hall offices will be closed for the long holiday weekend. The workers and officials will be receiving pay for work performed Dec. 15-31. Ordinarily, the checks would not be issued until Jan. 5. The customary early payday was scheduled to close out the books on 1966.

Zollinger said police pension checks will be issued at the same time. Fire department pension checks were issued Dec. 23, but some have not been claimed by the recipients, he said. They may be picked up at the same time.

Wellsville police are detaining two Steubenville men arrested at 3:30 this morning while riding in a stolen car.

The suspects, 18 and 23, were being held in custody pending the arrival of Toronto police who are expected to file an auto theft charge.

Eight members went on a small game hunt Monday.

Jarrett won a special prize. The next meeting will be Jan. 10 at 7:30 p. m. at the hall. Any boy 16 to 21 interested in joining is invited to attend.

Penalties Suspended For Man On 2 Counts

Vance M. Thomas, 29, of 1011 Florence St. was given a suspended fine and jail term today in Municipal Court on charges filed by police when they took him into custody after a disturbance at his home at 3:18 a. m. Dec. 22.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff fined Thomas $25 on an intoxication charge, but suspended the fine on payment of costs. Thomas also received a suspended 10-day jail term on a charge of "resisting and abusing an officer. . ."

Police said they were summoned to the home after Thomas broke several window panes with his hands. His hearing had been continued from Dec. 23 to permit him to consult a physician. Thomas told the court today a doctor blamed his outburst on "nerves."

Food Establishments Reminded Of License

LISBON — Columbiana County restaurant owners have but one day left to apply for 1967 food service licenses from the County Health Department.

Sanitarian Harry Stockdale reminds food service operators the Courthouse will be closed Saturday and Monday for the New Year's holiday.

Most of the county's 155 full-time food service establishments already have obtained 1967 licenses, he said. The fee varies, depending upon seating accommodations.

Applications may be made at the Health Department office on the third floor of the Courthouse between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Stefl Warns Against Counterfeit $10 Bills

Midland Police Chief Ed Stefl today warned area merchants that counterfeit $10 bills are being passed. He said he has received word that 21 such bills have been passed in the area, including Waterford Park Race Track near Newell.

The serial numbers on some of the phony bills include: I41458428A, A01578078A and K16757163B.

Peking Opens Hate-Soviet Drive In Army

MOSCOW (AP) — Peking's leaders have ordered an all-out hate- Soviet campaign in the Chinese army, the Soviet defense ministry charged today.

The defense ministry newspaper Red Star said "everything has been placed at the service of anti-Soviet propaganda." The article, spread across the bottom of two pages, was clearly aimed at warning Soviet military personnel of possible danger from China.

"To cultivate hatred for the Soviet Union among servicemen," the article said, "Chinese propaganda is trying in every way to persuade army soldiers and commanders that the Soviet Union and American imperialism are 'one and the same thing'."

Red China and the Soviet Union share a 4,150- mile border, much of it disputed territory. Chinese Communists party Chairman Mao Tse-tung has claimed 580,000 square miles of Soviet territory belongs to China.

In recent weeks the Soviets have disclosed they are strengthening civilian defense units along the border, obviously to meet any Chinese threat.

The article appeared the day after China's fifth nuclear test, and although the two were not necessarily related, the Soviets have been clearly alarmed by the prospect of a hostile China with nuclear arms on their border.

South Korea's Donghwa news agency reported today that a Red Chinese field army has been concentrated just north of the Yalu River along the border between North Korea and China.

Quoting South Korean defense ministry officials, the agency said the army's deployment was the first along the border since North Korea declared independence from Peking's policies last August.

A tractor - trailer which rolled over an embankment and a two - car mishap in East Palestine were among five accidents investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon Wednesday.

Jack M. Starlin, 32, of Lisbon R. D. 3, told police he had driven his northbound tractor-trailer off the left side of the highway on Route 7, north of 30, last night when the rig hit an area of soft mud and rolled over. Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: When I dial a wrong number on the telephone I always apologize to the person who answers. I figure I have inconvenienced someone and I always say I'm sorry.

Why do so many people get mad? After all, no one is going to call a wrong number intentionally. And then there always is the chance that the telephone equipment is not working properly and the wrong number was the result of a mechanical error.

In the last month, I have dialed some wrong numbers and the following comments have assaulted my ears: "What's the matter — ya' blind?" — "Sober up or stay off the horn." Then there are those who just hang up on me after I have said I'm sorry.

Just about everyone in the U.S. reads your column. Will you please print this letter and say a few words on the subject? — MY DIME.

Dear Dime: People don't have a special set of manners they reserve for the telephone. Considerate individuals behave on the phone the same way they behave at other times. And so do the boors.

The next time someone shouts rudely in your ear because you have dialed a wrong number, just be glad you don't have to spend more than a second or two listening to him.

Dear Ann: I would like to respond to "Fledgling" — the young gal who expressed a desire to be a first-class secretary and travel with her boss.

I have been a first-class secretary for almost 25 years. My boss is the head of a worldwide corporation which employs hundreds of people.

A secretary often makes the boss' travel plans and it's natural that she sometimes dreams of visiting all those exotic places. But if she is wise she will stay home and mind the store.

In these days of speedy travel and rapid communication a businessman does not need a traveling secretary. So, don't get any funny ideas, dear. Travel on your own time. — MONTREAL.

-:-

Dear Montreal: I hope you realize what your letter did for every wife whose husband says he must have his secretary along on his business trips. Does anyone have another point of view? If so — speak up and I'll print it.

Tone Deaf

Dear Ann. May wife and I have been married 38 years and we get along pretty well considering that her mother didn't think it would last six months.

We argue a lot lately because my wife says I don't answer her when she talks to me. I have told her repeatedly that I don't hear her. She says I don't hear her because I don't want to hear her.

I suspect she doesn't speak up so she will have an excuse to chew at me about something. She used to nag me to death about my smoking but now that I have quit she needs a new subject.

My wife has a high-pitched voice and I'm sure if she really wanted me to hear her I would. Have you ever had this problem before? What's the answer? — ORV.

Dear Orv: Yes, I have had the problem before and my ear experts tell me that the male sometimes loses the ability to hear high-pitched sounds as he grows older — especially if the sound is his wife's voice.

Ask her to try to speak in a lower register, and you try to listen a little harder, Bub.

-:-

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Here's the way I cook bacon and it's the BEST:

After laying it out in a cold skillet, I put a round wire grate or rack upside down on top of the bacon.

These grates can be found in a dime or hardware store and are inexpensive.

Be sure that the fire is low and the bacon is cooked slowly. I find it gets done without any turning at all.

When done, I just lift out the grate with a fork or kitchen forceps . . . and then the bacon.

There's nothing to it.

HELEN LUTOMSKI.

-:-

Well, well, well, something new every day!

I used the grate from my dutch oven for this. All I did was turn it upside down. It's a dilly of an idea. The little wire rack also keeps the bacon from shrinking and curling. Even small cake racks should work fine.

Bless you always, Helen.

HELOISE

DEAR HELOISE: Our little daughter got alphabet blocks from Santa Claus.

I didn't have time to make a cloth bag to keep them in right away but found something twice as good.

She discovered it was fun to put the blocks in and take them out of a 16-oz. pop bottle six-pack carton. I even found it very handy when picking up the blocks myself.

I covered the carton with adhesive-backed paper left from my cupboards, and it is very attractive.

MRS. LORRAINE DeROSE.

DEAR HELOISE: Here is a hint most everyone can use (even a man living alone): For holes in clothing made by cigarette burns and the best way I have found is to lay the burned or torn place in the clothing on a flat surface. With sharp pointed pencil make a pattern of the hole on a piece of paper, cut a small piece of cloth (matching stripes or plaids) from seam allowance on leg or back of men's pants or other clothing; cut a patch using the pattern you have made.

Place a piece of iron-tape under the hole, fit the patch exactly to the paper design, matching it perfectly. All that is left to do is press the patch in place with your iron.

MRS. K. L. P.

DEAR LADIES: I just realized that I married a real brain!

My husband writes nearly all of the checks at our house so it was the end of January last year before I had occasion to write one. I started to fill in the date and noticed that he had already filled in the year on about 20 of the checks.

By the time we had written that many checks we were used to the idea that it was a new year! 1967 will soon be here and I wonder how many of us will still write 1966?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you know that if you stuff wet shoes with crumpled newspaper that the newspaper would absorb most of the moisture?

MARY HILL.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: When I make kitchen aprons to give as gifts, I always stitch a small piece of material for patching on the wrong side of the apron, underneath where the pocket will be placed.

I stitch the patching once across the top so the piece hangs loose. Then if a small patch is needed it can be cut off.

This is most convenient. The patch is always there and laundered along with the apron so the color stays about the same.

My friends all like the idea — hope you do! This idea can be used with any garment.

ANN GREEN

DEAR HELOISE: I suffer from arthritis and have a hard time getting the "dead skin" off the bottoms of my feet.

I can't reach them so I tied a strip of nylon net, and it's the answer to my problems. I loop the strip of net under my foot and pull back and forth . . . . just like shining shoes. I also use the net on my upper arms. But don't rub too hard or there won't be any skin left.

GRANDMA.

Ohio High Court Denies Murder Conviction Plea

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court denied an appeal Wednesday from a Lancaster youth convicted of murder, ruling unanimously that police protected his constitutional rights.

Counsel for the youth, John Lincoln Carder, contended that a confession made to police should not have been permitted as evidence in his case. Carder was sentenced to life in prison after being convicted of first-degree murder in the 1964 slaying of Vanetta Brucker, a Lancaster delicatessen owner.

The victim was stabbed to death in her store. Carder was a 16-year-old high school junior at the time.

The Supreme Court said the confession was permissible because police told Carder he did not have to answer any questions and was entitled to have a lawyer to advise him.

Arthritis considered the major cause of chronic disability in the United States today. It no longer need be crippling, however. Thankfully, early treatment, control, and therapy can contain this non-discriminate crippler. Swelling and stiffness along with soreness of the joints and pain and stiffness upon arising are early signs of arthritis. If you suspect any of these symptoms see your doctor at once.

Ohio High Court Denies Murder Conviction Plea

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court denied an appeal Wednesday from a Lancaster youth convicted of murder, ruling unanimously that police protected his constitutional rights.

Counsel for the youth, John Lincoln Carder, contended that a confession made to police should not have been permitted as evidence in his case. Carder was sentenced to life in prison after being convicted of first-degree murder in the 1964 slaying of Vanetta Brucker, a Lancaster delicatessen owner.

The victim was stabbed to death in her store. Carder was a 16-year-old high school junior at the time.

The Supreme Court said the confession was permissible because police told Carder he did not have to answer any questions and was entitled to have a lawyer to advise him.

Was Certain LBJ Would Continue Huband's Policy

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy wrote Premier Nikita Khrushchev before she left the White House that he and President Kennedy, although adversaries, were allied in a determination that the world would not be blown up.

Mrs. Kennedy said she was certain that President Johnson would continue her husband's policy which she termed one of control and restraint.

A spokesman for the Kennedy family confirmed today that the letter will be in the Look magazine serialization of William Manchester's book, "The Death of a President." The spokesman was asked about the letter after a person who had read the manuscript related details of it to The Associated Press.

Manchester also says in the serialization, according to a person who has read it:

He agrees with the theory of the Warren commission, which investigated the assassination, that Gov. John Connally of Texas, who was riding with Kennedy in the Dallas motorcade Nov. 22, 1963, was hit by the same bullet that went through Kennedy's body. Connally has expressed the opinion that he and Kennedy were hit by different bullets.

Newsman Charles Bartlett told Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara he had heard from President Kennedy that he was to be secretary of state in the second term. Bartlett said today he did not care to comment.

(Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr., a former adviser to President Kennedy, wrote recently that Kennedy had decided in 1963 to replace Dean Rusk as secretary of state after the 1964 election).

Manchester says that once Rusk had left, Robert F. Kennedy, then attorney general, would ask to be assistant secretary for inter-American affairs.

Schlesinger asked John Bailey, Democratic national chairman, if it were possible to deny the presidential nomination in 1968 to Johnson. Bailey said the result would be to lose the election.

A source close to the Kennedy family said that Mrs. Kennedy had written a letter to President Johnson after the assassination in which she expressed "appreciation for the considerate behavior he showed her."

"In some respects the book paints an unfavorable picture of President Johnson," the source said. "But this did not come from Mrs. Kennedy, or Robert Kennedy. It came from some other sources and from the judgment of the author, which he is entitled to make."

'Fire Bailey,' Gosney Asks Of President

Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, an Eastern Ohio Democratic leader, called upon President Lyndon B. Johnson in a letter Wednesday to fire John M. Bailey as chairman of the party's national committee and appoint a new leader "who will establish communication with the grass roots on the county and city level."

Gosney told the President in a letter he believes a new national committee chairman should be named soon "to build for 1968" — the next presidential election year.

"I believe we have one of the greatest presidents of this century and our national economy is in its best condition in history, but the party leadership has failed to point out these things to the public," Gosney wrote. Public opinion polls to the contrary, he said he feels there still is strong sentiment throughout the nation in support of the administration's foreign and domestic programs.

"Ray Bliss isn't infallible or invincible," he wrote, a reference to the Republican national chairman who formerly headed his party in Ohio. Gosney declared that Democrats made great gains in Ohio while Bliss was GOP chairman, particularly in winning many Courthouse posts.

Gosney has been a friend and supporter of Johnson since 1960, when he was one of the first to back the Texan for his party's nomination for President. Johnson appeared at a party dinner at Beaver Local High School in his first address outside Texas during that campaign. Gosney and his wife were guests of the President at the White House in 1965 at a state dinner honoring the prime minister of Japan.

Gosney is county party chairman and also serves on the Ohio Democratic Central Committee as the representative from the 18th Congressional District. Shortly after the 1966 general election, in which Democrats suffered losses in state and national races, Gosney fired a telegram to Bailey asking him to resign.

Midland Five Faces Mercer In 1st Round

Uniontown will open defense of its Holiday Tournament crown when the Raiders oppose New Castle in the opener of the sixth annual event tonight at the Midland High School gym.

Uniontown and New Castle will meet at 7:30 p. m. In the second contest, Hank Kuzma's host Midland squad battles Mercer, last year's Class B state champions.

Mercer, Uniontown and Midland all bring perfect records into the tournament while New Castle is the only member of the tourney field to be beaten so far this campaign.

In addition to the outstanding teams, a queen contest will feature tonight's activities. One of eight girls, two from each participating school, will be crowned at halftime of the second game.

Judges for the queen contest will be Miss Inez Artico of Crucible Steel, Margaret Keller of the Beaver Falls News-Tribune and Gladys Gibbons of the Beaver County Times.

Officials have been assigned for the four games with Mike Kostko and Dan Sciarro handling the first game while Lou Angelo and Phil Davidson will officiate the second game tonight.

William Vinovich Sr. and William Vinovich Jr. will officiate the consolation game. The championship contest Friday will be handled by Bill Bechdel and Joe Babish.

Kuzma Resigns At Midland As Head Basketball Coach

Henry (Hank) Kuzma, principal and head basketball coach at Midland High School, announced Wednesday he has decided to resign his coaching position which he has held for the past six years.

Kuzma said a letter of resignation has been sent to Supt. Wilbur Dershimer, stating the resignation would become effective at the end of the current basketball season.

The 39-year-old Kuzma did not give any specific reasons for leaving the basketball post, but said "my future is undecided at the present time."

While he has been serving in the dual capacity as principal and coach this year, Midland's basketball squad has been undefeated in eight games.

"I would accept another coaching position elsewhere if the proper circumstances exist, and while I am resigning as coach, I am not resigning as principal of Midland High School," Kuzma said.

Kuzma did not give any indication that he had been offered a coaching position elsewhere.

Now in his seventh season as head basketball coach, Kuzma was named principal in April.

Supt. Dershimer said today that no letter of resignation had been received in his office, but that he hoped to confer with Kuzma later today.

This year's team currently holds an 8-0 record heading into the Holiday Tournament which begins tonight at Midland.

Kuzma's records at Midland have been outstanding and matched by very few high school coaches in Pennsylvania.

His overall record at Midland including games this year is 139 victories against only 17 defeats.

Kuzma took Midland basketball to its greatest heights in the 1964-65 season by winning the Pennsylvania Class A championship and finishing the season with a 28-0 record.

Under Kuzma Midland has posted three unbeaten regular seasons and has captured four straight Section championships from 1962 through 1965.

In six years, Midland has averaged 20 victories each season, and in one period covering six years, lost only five games while winning 73.

In WPIAL and PIAA playoff competition, Midland has won 11 games and lost three. The Leopards also won four consecutive Holiday Tournament championships before being dethroned last year by Uniontown.

Kuzma is married and has three children. He resides in Ohio View, Industry.

Alcindor Scores 24

UCLA Batters Wisconsin; Cornell Spills Kentucky

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

UCLA continues to give opponents the shakes, and in Kentucky, Adolph Rupp just sits and shudders.

The top-ranked Uclans, led by towering Lew Alcindor, battered Wisconsin 100-56 in the Los Angeles Classic Monday night as college basketball's tournament turmoil reached its peak.

But at Lexington, Ky., Rupp's Wildcats, who seemed to have snapped their slump by winning their Invitational tourney last week, stumbled again, dropping a 92-77 shocker to lightly-regarded Cornell.

That left Rupp's club — much the same team that reached the NCAA championships finals last March — with a mediocre 4-4 record. And all four losses have come at home, where the Wildcats are usually at their best.

Meanwhile, UCLA gave an awesome display in its LA Classic debut.

Alcindor, the 7-foot-1 sophomore, scored 24 points and grabbed 16 rebounds as UCLA demolished Wisconsin. He also blocked shot after shot, frustrating the Badger offense.

In the first game of the LA Classic opening round doubleheader, Georgia Tech upset Michigan 101-70 with Pres Judy scoring 21 points.

Western Kentucky whipped host Miami 94-89 for the Hurricane Classic title.

Providence and St. Joseph's advanced to the finals of New York's Holiday Festival, both on the strength of strong individual performances.

The Friars got 38 points from Jimmy Walker and whipped Northwestern 91-79 while Cliff Anderson hit 39 for the Hawks, who dropped Rhode Island 91-79.

Michigan State, ranked 10th in the country going into the Quaker City tournament this week, dropped its second straight there. The Spartans, who were beaten by Villanova in their opener, lost to Bowling Green 75-67 in the consolation round.

Houston, No. 8, got 22 points each from Elvin Hayes and Don Charney and won their eighth straight, beating Kent State 85-73 in the opening round of the 85-73 in the opening round of the Arkansas State tournament.

Seventh - ranked Cincinnati, not playing in any tourney, kept busy with a 94-66 romp over St. Joseph's of Indiana as six players reached double figures. It was the Bearcats' eighth straight victory.

76ers Score 31st Victory On Own Floor

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Alex Hannum of the Philadelphia 76ers admits his team needed every advantage to beat Boston for its 31st straight home court victory Wednesday night in the National Basketball Association.

The 76ers rallied and beat the Celtics 113-108. It was also victory No. 34 against only three losses for the 76ers and gave them a seven-game edge over second-place Boston in the Eastern Division.

In other games Wednesday night San Francisco beat Baltimore 138-115 and New York beat Los Angeles 121-115.

Hannum said after the 76ers' victory, "I was a little disturbed in the first period when we were down by 13 points, and I didn't think we'd get untracked. But in the second quarter Billy Cunningham started running and everybody started running and it got us going, and we finally started shooting them in."

Hannum said "the home court certainly was an advantage for us. The Celtics probably would have beaten us by five at Boston under the same conditions."

The Celtics have beaten Philadelphia twice in Boston and the 76ers have won all three meetings here.

Wilt Chamberlain stood out on offense and defense, collecting 24 points, nine assists and grabbing 32 rebounds. Cunningham scored 23 points.

Paul Neumann scored 30 points, making up for San Francisco's Rick Barry, out with a sprained ankle. Baltimore was missing Gus Johnson who had a knee injury and Don Ohl led the Bullet scorers with 24 points.

Emmette Bryant and Howie Komives combined to hold Jerry West scoreless from the floor in the second half in the Knicks' victory over the Lakers. West, who had 25 points in the first half, was high for the game with 31. Willis Reed led New York with 29 points.

Waterford, Thistledowns Exchange Publicity Men

Pete Bonamy, director of publicity and advertising at Wheeling Downs and Waterford Park for the past 11 years, has resigned his post at Waterford Park effective Jan. 7, and will join the official tag at Thistledowns, Cranwood and Randall park as director of publicity and public relations.

Bonamy will assume his duties at the Cleveland tracks on Jan. 16, and will work with his former superior, General Manager Harry R. Bell, who took over that post last Nov. 19.

Bonamy will be relieved at Waterford Park by Van Lane, former Publicity and Public Relations Director at the Cleveland Tracks for the past two years. This simply amounts to a switch of jobs by the two popular drum thumpers, without previous planning.

Edward Debartolo, president of Thistledown, stated that Bonamy will handle the complete operation of the public relations and press department and will work directly with Harry R. Bell at all times.

Bonamy, who is a second term president of the Turf Publicists of America, has held similar positions at several tracks in the country, including the Las Vegas Jockey Club, Toledo, Detroit and Wheeling.

Bell stated that Bonamy brings with him many years of experience in his field and will be a valuable asset to the official family at the Cleveland tracks.

Breaks Seen Difference In Orange Bowl

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Emerging from four top-secret practice sessions, Florida Coach Ray Graves says he figures the Orange Bowl football battle between his Gators and Georgia Tech may be won by a single break.

"I give Tech a slight edge on defense and us a slight edge on offense — but not much either way," Graves said. "A break, or possibly the kicking game, could be the difference."

Florida's hopes ride with Steve Spurrier, the Heisman Trophy winner, and the focus was on the great quarterback as the Gators held twice-a-day workouts Tuesday and Wednesday with press and public barred.

There was only one sour note in the Florida picture. Defensive halfback George Grandy, one of the Gators' top head hunters, missed all the Miami practices because of a virus attack. But Graves said he hoped to have him back Friday.

Georgia Tech, on the other hand, was plagued by an unusual rash of injuries.

Three key players — linebacker Billy Schroer, defense end Tommy Carlisle and tailback Jimmy Brown — will be doubtful participants in Monday night's Orange Bowl game, Coach Bobby Dodd said.

Penn State will face Army and Navy on its 1968 football schedule.

Alumni Wins Over S. Side Five, 70-59

The South Side Alumni scored a 70-59 victory over the Rams' varsity team in a benefit game sponsored by the Athletic Boosters Club Wednesday night.

Ken Peden, star of last year's Ram team and now a member of the freshman team at the University of Nebraska, led the Alumni with 20 points while Dave Ashcroft added 17.

Ron Peden paced the Varsity matching his brother with 20 points. Dan Hartzell added 14.

The Faculty led by head coach George Zanic's 22 points nipped the Jayvees 57-55. Ken Dunlevy led the Jayvees with 16.

South Side returns to regular season action Friday at home meeting Fort Economy.

Syracuse U. Holds Secret Bowl Drills

By F. T. MACFEELY

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A veil of secrecy has been enforced by uniformed policemen around the practice field where Syracuse prepares for Saturday's Gator Bowl game against Tennessee.

In contrast, the Tennessee practice field several miles away has been ringed with spectators.

Coaches Ben Schwartzwalder of Syracuse and Doug Dickey of Tennessee explained their contrasting philosophies.

"You're darn right it could make a difference if a Tennessee scout saw us practice," Schwartzwalder said. "We are putting in some new things, and I'm sure they are, too. We'd like to get a look at some pictures of them working."

Dickey agreed that "we are putting in some new wrinkles."

But, he said, he didn't think if a Syracuse scout watched the Vols practice he would learn much to affect the game.

Any visitor who approached the St. Augustine field where Syracuse has been working since Dec. 18 was stopped by an officer in uniform.

Prior clearance for reporters was enough to permit entrance "as long as you don't write anything about what we are working on."

Gabriel Faces Trial For Drunken Driving

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles Rams quarterback Roman Gabriel has pleaded innocent to a misdemeanor drunken driving charge. He will stand trial March 8.

Gabriel, a 26-year-old five-year veteran of the National Football League, entered his plea Wednesday. He was arrested Dec. 22.

Bill Mazeroski of the Pittsburgh Pirates set a fielding record last season when he took part in 161 double plays. It was the most ever made in one season by a National League second baseman. It was the seventh time, he led the league which is another record.

Clay, Terrell Tangle At Press Conference

NEW YORK (AP) — "Oh, he needs to be beaten real good. I'm going to knock him out."

Ernie Terrell, his eyes still smoldering, meant the words for Cassius Clay, following a hot tiff between the two heavyweights that almost broke into a free fight Wednesday.

After calling Terrell "an Uncle Tom" because the towering fighter wouldn't call him Muhammad Ali, the Muslim name Clay prefers, Clay slapped Terrell's right arm and challenged him to "fight it out right now" at a Madison Square Garden press conference.

The 6-foot-3 Clay doffed his sports coat and tried to get at Terrell while the 6-foot-6 Terrell lunged at Clay. They were about six feet apart in a jam-packed small room in the Garden when the action started.

Various handlers and others collaborated to keep them apart.

Boxing veterans were dumbfounded at the unprofessional-like behavior of the two heavyweight champions, who are scheduled to fight for prices ranging to a $100 top at the Houston Astrodome, Feb. 6. Terrell is the World Boxing Association's champion while Clay is regarded as champion in most parts of the world.

If this was a publicity stunt, then the acting was magnificent. Both Clay and Terrell would have received top grades from the Actors' Studio.

The nasty accusations made by Clay may have hurt Ernie's feelings but the fracas certainly helped return attention to the upcoming fight.

By a strange coincidence, the whole bit took place while a television camera was grinding and both were being interviewed by Howard Cosell, the ABC sports commentator, in the boxing publicity office in the Garden.

The occasion was a Garden press conference to announce that the big arena will show the telecast of the fight.

Knee Operation Should Help Namath's Running

NEW YORK (AP) — They laughed when Joe Namath was wheeled into the operating room, and breathed a sigh of relief when he was wheeled out.

Namath, the New York Jets' $400,000 quarterback, underwent a complicated double knee operation Wednesday that team physician Dr. James A. Nicholas said was successful and should allow him to run "considerably better" next season.

The cause of the merriment before the operation was the slight goatee Namath has begun to grow.

The operation at Lenox Hill Hospital was performed by Nicholas.

Nicholas said the operation consisted of the removal of torn lateral cartilage from Namath's "loose bodies" from the knee joint and the transfer of some healthy tendon from the back of his leg above the knee to replace damaged tendon in the joint.

Namath's leg will be in a full-length cast for five or six weeks and he will remain in the hospital for two or three weeks.

Bill Creeden, Penn's junior quarterback, set an Ivy League record by completing 99 passes for 1,518 yards last season.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles Rams quarterback Roman Gabriel has pleaded innocent to a misdemeanor drunken driving charge. He will stand trial March 8.

Gabriel, a 26-year-old five-year veteran of the National Football League, entered his plea Wednesday. He was arrested Dec. 22.

Bill Mazeroski of the Pittsburgh Pirates set a fielding record last season when he took part in 161 double plays. It was the most ever made in one season by a National League second baseman. It was the seventh time, he led the league which is another record.

Clay, Terrell Tangle At Press Conference

NEW YORK (AP) — "Oh, he needs to be beaten real good. I'm going to knock him out."

Ernie Terrell, his eyes still smoldering, meant the words for Cassius Clay, following a hot tiff between the two heavyweights that almost broke into a free fight Wednesday.

After calling Terrell "an Uncle Tom" because the towering fighter wouldn't call him Muhammad Ali, the Muslim name Clay prefers, Clay slapped Terrell's right arm and challenged him to "fight it out right now" at a Madison Square Garden press conference.

The 6-foot-3 Clay doffed his sports coat and tried to get at Terrell while the 6-foot-6 Terrell lunged at Clay. They were about six feet apart in a jam-packed small room in the Garden when the action started.

Various handlers and others collaborated to keep them apart.

Boxing veterans were dumbfounded at the unprofessional-like behavior of the two heavyweight champions, who are scheduled to fight for prices ranging to a $100 top at the Houston Astrodome, Feb. 6. Terrell is the World Boxing Association's champion while Clay is regarded as champion in most parts of the world.

If this was a publicity stunt, then the acting was magnificent. Both Clay and Terrell would have received top grades from the Actors' Studio.

The nasty accusations made by Clay may have hurt Ernie's feelings but the fracas certainly helped return attention to the upcoming fight.

By a strange coincidence, the whole bit took place while a television camera was grinding and both were being interviewed by Howard Cosell, the ABC sports commentator, in the boxing publicity office in the Garden.

The occasion was a Garden press conference to announce that the big arena will show the telecast of the fight.

Small College Poll Only Lists Two Undefeated

By The Associated Press

There were only two unbeaten teams in The Associated Press' first small-college basketball poll of the season — top-ranked Kentucky Wesleyan, 6-0 through last Saturday's games, and third-rated Cheyney State of Pennsylvania, 8-0 through Saturday.

Kentucky Wesleyan was the winner of the NCAA's college division championship last season and Cheyney State won the AP's final poll last season with a 26-0 record.

The Panthers had seven first-place votes and 115 points, and Cheyney State had one first-place ballot and 79 points. Southern Illinois, in second place with a 4-1 record through Saturday, had three first-place votes and 99 points.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and points on a 10-9 etc. basis:

1.	Kentucky Wesleyan (7)	115
2.	Southern Illinois (3)	99
3.	Cheyney State (1)	79
4.	Akron	72
5.	Tenn. State (1)	62
6.	Pan American	59
7.	Indiana State (1)	47
8.	Grambling	42
9.	San Diego State	30
10.	Ark. AM&N	17

Races Are Canceled

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—Laurel Race Course canceled its nine-race program Wednesday because of a forecast of freezing rain and snow.

Knee Operation Should Help Namath's Running

NEW YORK (AP) — They laughed when Joe Namath was wheeled into the operating room, and breathed a sigh of relief when he was wheeled out.

Namath, the New York Jets' $400,000 quarterback, underwent a complicated double knee operation Wednesday that team physician Dr. James A. Nicholas said was successful and should allow him to run "considerably better" next season.

The cause of the merriment before the operation was the slight goatee Namath has begun to grow.

The operation at Lenox Hill Hospital was performed by Nicholas.

Nicholas said the operation consisted of the removal of torn lateral cartilage from Namath's "loose bodies" from the knee joint and the transfer of some healthy tendon from the back of his leg above the knee to replace damaged tendon in the joint.

Namath's leg will be in a full-length cast for five or six weeks and he will remain in the hospital for two or three weeks.

Bill Creeden, Penn's junior quarterback, set an Ivy League record by completing 99 passes for 1,518 yards last season.

HEY, DID YOU KNOW THAT EMOTIONAL TURMOIL, anger or preoccupation over business or personal matters can blind your judgement, dull your coordination and reflexes, and impair your ability to make quick decisions? Many accidents take place when motorists are angry or thinking about something else.

YOU CAN CHECK YOUR TIRE PRESSURE TOO often! Don't go crazy with your new tire gauge. Each time you check the tire you let some pressure out - - and let some dirt into the valve core. If your tires will hold air for a week, they'll hold if for two months. Check tires only when they look soft, before a long trip or before fast driving.

YOUR FAMILY NEEDS A SECOND CAR. One car to drive to work, second car to haul the kids to school, or for the working wife. And we have just the right second car for you at M & A MOTORS, 614 Broadway in Liverpool and at 241 Wells in Wellsville. Stop in soon!

EXPERT DRIVING HABITS: Keep your eyes moving - - scan the road continually, never letting your gaze fix for more than two seconds.

WOMEN DRIVERS AREN'T SO BAD. All of these women driver jokes make me sick! Now take my mother-in-law. PLEASE!

OPEN ROAD DRIVING: Remember you need more maneuvering room at high speeds. Allow more room for stopping. Watch further ahead for signs of danger and avoid bunching up with other cars. Stop each two hours for a rest during all-day driving sessions.

THIS MODEL HOME Improvement Co. team walked off with the title in the first annual Friendly Lanes Handicap tournament last week. Members of the team include Herb Hood, George Laneve, Jack Rudibaugh, tournament director, presenting winning prize money to Glen McGaffic and Ed Blazer. Missing from the picture was Dale Rudibaugh another member of the winning team.

HEY, DID YOU KNOW THAT EMOTIONAL TURMOIL, anger or preoccupation over business or personal matters can blind your judgement, dull your coordination and reflexes, and impair your ability to make quick decisions? Many accidents take place when motorists are angry or thinking about something else.

YOU CAN CHECK YOUR TIRE PRESSURE TOO often! Don't go crazy with your new tire gauge. Each time you check the tire you let some pressure out - - and let some dirt into the valve core. If your tires will hold air for a week, they'll hold if for two months. Check tires only when they look soft, before a long trip or before fast driving.

YOUR FAMILY NEEDS A SECOND CAR. One car to drive to work, second car to haul the kids to school, or for the working wife. And we have just the right second car for you at M & A MOTORS, 614 Broadway in Liverpool and at 241 Wells in Wellsville. Stop in soon!

EXPERT DRIVING HABITS: Keep your eyes moving - - scan the road continually, never letting your gaze fix for more than two seconds.

WOMEN DRIVERS AREN'T SO BAD. All of these women driver jokes make me sick! Now take my mother-in-law, PLEASE!

OPEN ROAD DRIVING: Remember you need more maneuvering room at high speeds. Allow more room for stopping. Watch further ahead for signs of danger and avoid bunching up with other cars. Stop each two hours for a rest during all-day driving sessions.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN HORN

The 'Avengers' Are Delayed

"The Avengers," the British import starring Diana Rigg and Patrick Mcnee, will not premiere ABC's second season Friday, Jan. 13, as originally planned. The series is not ready.

Instead, a final "12 O'Clock High," not a repeat but an original, will be telecast. Ralph Bellamy is the guest star. The vehicle: "The Hunters and the Killers."

The only ABC new show making its debut Friday the 13th, defying superstition, is the Western, "Rango." "Avengers" will come in a week later.

-:-

NOT SINCE the early days of television—when "Robert Montgomery Presents" opposed "Studio One" have the networks been so competitive in bids for quality.

After the acclaim for Arthur Miller's "Death Of a Salesman," CBS increased its specials—"S. Hurok Presents" and Tennessee William's "The Glass Menagerie" are recent ones—and announced the creation of "CBS Playhouse," offering lures of $25,000 for original TV plays.

ABC announced and presented "State 67," an experimental theater for drama, musicals and documentaries. It has been richer in promise than performance but the intention, perservance and the series continue despite abyssmally low ratings.

NBC paid $112,500—top price for drama—to William Hanley for "Flesh and Blood" and bought Peter Weiss's "The Investigation"—both plays of Broadway caliber—and threw in a nine-week Sunday-afternoon experimental theater.

-:-

THERE IS SOME question now when or if "Flesh and Blood," considered bold and daring by TV's standards, will be put on. It was to have been this season but now looks like the end of 1967.

CBS came back with a Sunday afternoon children's foreign film festival.

Never have so many networks ballyhooed so little into an image of doing much. It must be remembered that such productions have not yet attained the importance of three regular prime-time hours a week. And that most of the announced series and specials still are to be aired.

The trouble in the past has been network competition for the largest audiences, a quantity drive that meant eduction in quality. Ratings were live-or-die issues. "Cultural democracy," "nobody likes our shows but the public," "give audiences what they want," were the battle cries of programming vice presidents in their war on critics.

All that was changed.

NOW NETWORK executives again take personal pride in their work and boast of cultural coups, not ratings.

TV audiences again have an opportunity now and then to select an alternative to the light entertainment of situation comedies, spy stories, games, and comedy-variety. Not in all time periods—no one is yet asking that—but twice or three times a week.

-:-

IS THE HOLIDAY season responsible for this rash of do-goodism? A Scrooge would say, "Bah! Humbug!"

Congress has taken a renewed lively interest in television performances. Unlike stockholders, whose primary concern is self-serving, the lawmakers are curious about such items as election projections, of which they're critical and the existence of educational-television poverty in the midst of commercial-television record profits.

In the confrontation with the next session of Congress, the networks will need all the Brownie points they can get.

Meanwhile, network rivalry for class instead of mass has been a decidedly healthy change for the average viewer. He may wonder why he doesn't have a choice more often.

Cliff Robertson and Dina Merrill, now man and wife, play Mr. and Mrs. in ABC's "The Trap of Solid Gold," Jan. 4.

Jose Ferrer will narrate "The Island Called Ellis" on NBC, Jan. 13.

Lee Marvin is the narrator of "Our Time In Hell," the ABC documentary on the Marine Corps, March 21.

Veterans Collect Old Glasses For 'Eyes For Needy'

LISBON — The World War I veterans' group of Columbiana County is collecting old eyeglasses, sunglasses, frames from glasses, and scrap silver, gold and metal from watches, dentures and costume jewelry.

Harry H. Ferrall of Leetonia R. D. 2, chairman of the group, said the collection helps support the "New Eyes for the Needy" project sponsored by the Cuyahoga County Soldiers Relief Commission.

Ferrall said glasses with unbroken plastic frames are sorted, graded and sent to medical missions. The sunglasses go to tropical countries and leper colonies and metal frames and broken jewelry are sent to a refinery. The money realized buys new prescription glasses for distribution to needy around the world, Ferrall explained. The veterans have collected and sent in 25 pounds to date.

Ferrall said the group also is collecting old cigarette lighters, which are sent to the American Legion's department headquarters. Patients in the Chillicothe Veterans Administration hospital repair them and the Legion distributes them to veterans in other hospitals throughout the state.

The collection of the lighters is a statewide project of the Sons of the American Legion. Ferrall said his group will turn over to the SAL detachment the lighters it collects so the young men can receive credit for them.

East Liverpool residents having glasses, metal or lighters to donate may leave them with J. W. Barrett of the Senior Citizens Club.

Salem area residents having glasses, metal or lighters to donate may leave them with A. P. Morris at the Columbiana County Motor Club.

Child's Long Ordeal Of Pain Ends In Death

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Seven-year-old Randy Hurst's long ordeal of pain is over.

The child died Wednesday at a hospital where nurses said he seemed to have lived solely to enjoy Christmas. He did, too, despite auto accident burns and amputations that tormented him for 133 days.

The boy was injured in an Aug. 17 wreck that killed his father, sister and two brothers. Through months of skin grafts, transfusions and surgery he brightened at any mention of Christmas.

A story about him in the Florida Times-Union brought many Christmas gifts, including television sets, money and the cowboy suit he wanted most.

Divers To Seek Boat

CLEVELAND (AP) — Navy divers will try to locate the hulk of the Daniel J. Morrell for the Coast Guard, which is conducting an investigation into the sinking of the ore carrier in a Lake Huron storm Nov. 29, claiming 29 crewmen.

Ohio Traffic Mishap Fatal To 4 Persons

By The Associated Press

Ohio's worst traffic accident this holiday season has left four persons dead.

Two victims of the accident near Mansfield Wednesday were children.

A Youngstown woman drove a station wagon off an Interstate 71 exit ramp and into the path of a truck. Another car swerved and avoided the collision.

The victims, all in the station wagon, were Mrs. Elsie Clark, 40, her son, Donald, 12, and another Youngstown girl, Sandra Stuckey, 17.

The fourth victim was one of Mrs. Clark's twin daughters. But the Ohio Highway Patrol was unable to determine which one died. The dead girl's twin was hospitalized as were other Clark children riding with their mother.

Others among Ohio's latest traffic dead:

Albert D. McMillan, 18, Dayton.

Robert Wolfe, 19, Dayton.

Terry Sigler, 21, Lima

James E. Gray, 18, Hamilton.

McMillan died Wednesday night when his car ran off a road and smashed into a tree.

Wolfe was killed Wednesday night in a two-car collision on Ohio 48 near Troy.

Sigler was killed Wednesday when a car he was riding in collided with a truck on Ohio 65 north of Lima.

Gray, injured in a two car accident Sunday in Hamilton, died Wednesday night in a hospital.

Congress Probe Will Be Sought On Rep. Powell

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin now says he will ask for a congressional investigation of whether Rep. Adam Clayton Powell should be seated in the new Congress rather than seeking immediately to bar Powell.

During such a delay in his seating pending a probe, Powell, a New York Democrat, would be entitled to salary and other congressional privileges but not his vote.

Van Deerlin said he would ask the House speaker to appoint a nine-member committee for an investigation he said might take four to six months.

The California Democrat said Wednesday night in a telephone interview that the investigation would give Powell "a chance to purge himself — to relieve his status as a fugitive from justice."

Powell has been sentenced in New York to more than a year in jail for contempt of court growing out of his failure to pay a $164,000 libel judgment against him. He has recently been staying in the Bahamas.

Soil, Crops Institute To Be On Wednesday

SALEM — The annual Columbiana - Mahoning Soil and Crops Institute will be held Wednesday in Salem Christian Church at 1151 E. 6th St., and not Jan. 14 as announced previously.

The program, beginning at 10 a. m., will concern herbicides for meadows, alfalfa and clover leaf weevil control and corn rootworm.

Discussions will be led by Dr. Ed Stroube, Ohio State University agronomist, and Dr. Harry Neimczyk and Dr. J. B. Polivka, entomologists at the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center at Wooster.

Cleveland District Man Sues Newscaster

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Warrensville Heights man has sued newcaster William (Bill) Jorgensen for $100,000 damages, charging that Jorgensen knocked him down in an altercation last March and later had him arrested for assault and battery.

Massino Vincent Cursaro Ferrari, also known as Vincent Farrari, was acquitted of the assault and battery charge last April in Lakewood Municipal Court.

The fight allegedly took place outside Jorgensen's apartment.

Jorgensen could not be reached for comment.

5 More From Ohio Killed In Viet Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department's listing Wednesday of U.S. servicemen killed in action in the Vietnam war included five Ohioans.

The latest Buckeye State casualties were Army Spec. 4 Ronald P. Evans of Cincinnati, Army Pfc. Ronnie R. Bishop of Deshler, Marine Pfc. Michael E. Smith of Hamilton, Air Force 1st Lt. John M. Troyer of Columbus and Navy Fireman Robert M. Klevenowski of Cleveland.

Out Of The Air

By JOHN HORN

The 'Avengers' Are Delayed

"The Avengers," the British import starring Diana Rigg and Patrick Mcnee, will not premiere ABC's second season Friday, Jan. 13, as originally planned. The series is not ready.

Instead, a final "12 O'Clock High," not a repeat but an original, will be telecast. Ralph Bellamy is the guest star. The vehicle: "The Hunters and the Killers."

The only ABC new show making its debut Friday the 13th, defying superstition, is the Western, "Rango." "Avengers" will come in a week later.

-:-

NOT SINCE the early days of television—when "Robert Montgomery Presents" opposed "Studio One" have the networks been so competitive in bids for quality.

After the acclaim for Arthur Miller's "Death Of a Salesman," CBS increased its specials—"S. Hurok Presents" and Tennessee William's "The Glass Menagerie" are recent ones—and announced the creation of "CBS Playhouse," offering lures of $25,000 for original TV plays.

ABC announced and presented "State 67," an experimental theater for drama, musicals and documentaries. It has been richer in promise than performance but the intention, perservance and the series continue despite abyssmally low ratings.

NBC paid $112,500—top price for drama—to William Hanley for "Flesh and Blood" and bought Peter Weiss's "The Investigation"—both plays of Broadway caliber—and threw in a nine-week Sunday-afternoon experimental theater.

-:-

THERE IS SOME question now when or if "Flesh and Blood," considered bold and daring by TV's standards, will be put on. It was to have been this season but now looks like the end of 1967.

CBS came back with a Sunday afternoon children's foreign film festival.

Never have so many networks ballyhooed so little into an image of doing much. It must be remembered that such productions have not yet attained the importance of three regular prime-time hours a week. And that most of the announced series and specials still are to be aired.

The trouble in the past has been network competition for the largest audiences, a quantity drive that meant eduction in quality. Ratings were live-or-die issues. "Cultural democracy," "nobody likes our shows but the public," "give audiences what they want," were the battle cries of programming vice presidents in their war on critics.

All that was changed.

NOW NETWORK executives again take personal pride in their work and boast of cultural coups, not ratings.

TV audiences again have an opportunity now and then to select an alternative to the light entertainment of situation comedies, spy stories, games, and comedy-variety. Not in all time periods—no one is yet asking that—but twice or three times a week.

-:-

IS THE HOLIDAY season responsible for this rash of do-goodism? A Scrooge would say, "Bah! Humbug!"

Congress has taken a renewed lively interest in television performances. Unlike stockholders, whose primary concern is self-serving, the lawmakers are curious about such items as election projections, of which they're critical and the existence of educational-television poverty in the midst of commercial-television record profits.

In the confrontation with the next session of Congress, the networks will need all the Brownie points they can get.

Meanwhile, network rivalry for class instead of mass has been a decidedly healthy change for the average viewer. He may wonder why he doesn't have a choice more often.

Cliff Robertson and Dina Merrill, now man and wife, play Mr. and Mrs. in ABC's "The Trap of Solid Gold," Jan. 4.

Jose Ferrer will narrate "The Island Called Ellis" on NBC, Jan. 13.

Lee Marvin is the narrator of "Our Time In Hell," the ABC documentary on the Marine Corps, March 21.

Man Held In Death Of Ohio Woman

BOSTON (AP)—A bank employe and part-time student at Boston University, Douglas P. Huot, 25, Portland, Maine, was held for grand jury action Wednesday for the murder of a young Ohio woman.

Veterans Collect Old Glasses For 'Eyes For Needy'

LISBON — The World War I veterans' group of Columbiana County is collecting old eyeglasses, sunglasses, frames from glasses, and scrap silver, gold and metal from watches, dentures and costume jewelry.

Harry H. Ferrall of Leetonia R. D. 2, chairman of the group, said the collection helps support the "New Eyes for the Needy" project sponsored by the Cuyahoga County Soldiers Relief Commission.

Ferrall said glasses with unbroken plastic frames are sorted, graded and sent to medical missions. The sunglasses go to tropical countries and leper colonies and metal frames and broken jewelry are sent to a refinery. The money realized buys new prescription glasses for distribution to needy around the world, Ferrall explained. The veterans have collected and sent in 25 pounds to date.

Ferrall said the group also is collecting old cigarette lighters, which are sent to the American Legion's department headquarters. Patients in the Chillicothe Veterans Administration hospital repair them and the Legion distributes them to veterans in other hospitals throughout the state.

The collection of the lighters is a statewide project of the Sons of the American Legion. Ferrall said his group will turn over to the SAL detachment the lighters it collects so the young men can receive credit for them.

East Liverpool residents having glasses, metal or lighters to donate may leave them with J. W. Barrett of the Senior Citizens Club.

Salem area residents having glasses, metal or lighters to donate may leave them with A. P. Morris at the Columbiana County Motor Club.

Child's Long Ordeal Of Pain Ends In Death

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Seven-year-old Randy Hurst's long ordeal of pain is over.

The child died Wednesday at a hospital where nurses said he seemed to have lived solely to enjoy Christmas. He did, too, despite auto accident burns and amputations that tormented him for 133 days.

The boy was injured in an Aug. 17 wreck that killed his father, sister and two brothers. Through months of skin grafts, transfusions and surgery he brightened at any mention of Christmas.

A story about him in the Florida Times-Union brought many Christmas gifts, including television sets, money and the cowboy suit he wanted most.

Divers To Seek Boat

CLEVELAND (AP) — Navy divers will try to locate the hulk of the Daniel J. Morrell for the Coast Guard, which is conducting an investigation into the sinking of the ore carrier in a Lake Huron storm Nov. 29, claiming 29 crewmen.

Ohio Traffic Mishap Fatal To 4 Persons

By The Associated Press

Ohio's worst traffic accident this holiday season has left four persons dead.

Two victims of the accident near Mansfield Wednesday were children.

A Youngstown woman drove a station wagon off an Interstate 71 exit ramp and into the path of a truck. Another car swerved and avoided the collision.

The victims, all in the station wagon, were Mrs. Elsie Clark, 40, her son, Donald, 12, and another Youngstown girl, Sandra Stuckey, 17.

The fourth victim was one of Mrs. Clark's twin daughters. But the Ohio Highway Patrol was unable to determine which one died. The dead girl's twin was hospitalized as were other Clark children riding with their mother.

Others among Ohio's latest traffic dead:

Albert D. McMillan, 18, Dayton.

Robert Wolfe, 19, Dayton.

Terry Sigler, 21, Lima

James E. Gray, 18, Hamilton.

McMillan died Wednesday night when his car ran off a road and smashed into a tree.

Wolfe was killed Wednesday night in a two-car collision on Ohio 48 near Troy.

Sigler was killed Wednesday when a car he was riding in collided with a truck on Ohio 65 north of Lima.

Gray, injured in a two car accident Sunday in Hamilton, died Wednesday night in a hospital.

Congress Probe Will Be Sought On Rep. Powell

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin now says he will ask for a congressional investigation of whether Rep. Adam Clayton Powell should be seated in the new Congress rather than seeking immediately to bar Powell.

During such a delay in his seating pending a probe, Powell, a New York Democrat, would be entitled to salary and other congressional privileges but not his vote.

Van Deerlin said he would ask the House speaker to appoint a nine-member committee for an investigation he said might take four to six months.

The California Democrat said Wednesday night in a telephone interview that the investigation would give Powell "a chance to purge himself — to relieve his status as a fugitive from justice."

Powell has been sentenced in New York to more than a year in jail for contempt of court growing out of his failure to pay a $164,000 libel judgment against him. He has recently been staying in the Bahamas.

Soil, Crops Institute To Be On Wednesday

SALEM — The annual Columbiana - Mahoning Soil and Crops Institute will be held Wednesday in Salem Christian Church at 1151 E. 6th St., and not Jan. 14 as announced previously.

The program, beginning at 10 a. m., will concern herbicides for meadows, alfalfa and clover leaf weevil control and corn rootworm.

Discussions will be led by Dr. Ed Stroube, Ohio State University agronomist, and Dr. Harry Neimczyk and Dr. J. B. Polivka, entomologists at the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center at Wooster.

Cleveland District Man Sues Newscaster

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Warrensville Heights man has sued newcaster William (Bill) Jorgensen for $100,000 damages, charging that Jorgensen knocked him down in an altercation last March and later had him arrested for assault and battery.

Massino Vincent Cursaro Ferrari, also known as Vincent Farrari, was acquitted of the assault and battery charge last April in Lakewood Municipal Court.

The fight allegedly took place outside Jorgensen's apartment.

Jorgensen could not be reached for comment.

5 More From Ohio Killed In Viet Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department's listing Wednesday of U.S. servicemen killed in action in the Vietnam war included five Ohioans.

The latest Buckeye State casualties were Army Spec. 4 Ronald P. Evans of Cincinnati, Army Pfc. Ronnie R. Bishop of Deshler, Marine Pfc. Michael E. Smith of Hamilton, Air Force 1st Lt. John M. Troyer of Columbus and Navy Fireman Robert M. Klevenowski of Cleveland.

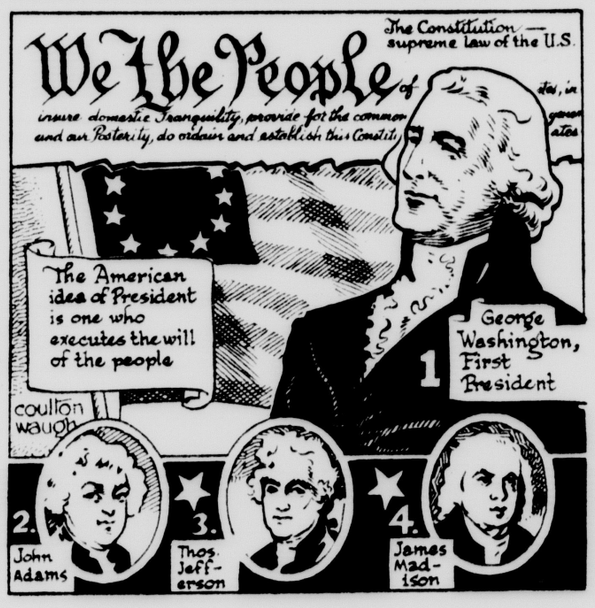
A Junior Editors Quiz About PRESIDENT



QUESTION: Why was a president chosen to be the chief executive of the United States?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: "President" comes from the Latin "praeses," one who presides. A president, in Roman times, was one who governed provinces in the Emperor's name. The English used the word in much the same way. In the American colonies, there was a president of the council in several states. Soon after the Declaration of Independence, the Second Continental Congress appointed a committee to draw up a plan for the new nation's government. The Articles of Confederation, written for this committee by John Dickinson, were presented to the Congress and adopted. The Articles mentioned a president, but one without real power. They did not provide for strong government, so Washington and others called for a convention to draw up a constitution. The framers of the Constitution wanted a strong executive, but disliked the idea of a king ruling the new country. The solution was to keep the office of president but to give to it stronger powers than it had before. As a result, the office of president became one of tremendous importance.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: We show the first four Presidents. Write down the others you know, and check on the ones you don't know.

★ ★ ★

Kimberly Corrette of Laconia, N. H., wins today's combined prize of Compton's Illustrated Science Dictionary plus $10 cash for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of The Review.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, Dec. 29, the 363rd day of 1966. There are two days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1845, Texas was admitted to the Union as the 28th state.

On this date:

In 1808, Andrew Johnson, the 17th President of the United States, was born.

In 1941, Japanese troops were closing in on the Philippine capital, Manila.

In 1944, the Nazis in the Belgian "bulge" were being squeezed by Allied armies hitting the Germans on three sides.

Ten years ago — United Nations salvage crews began the task of clearing the Suez Canal of sunken vessels and other obstacles blocking the waterway. The canal had been made impassable at the height of the Suez crisis.

Five years ago—French President Charles de Gaulle said the bulk of the French army in Algeria would be withdrawn in the coming year. In De Gaulle's 1961 yearend message, he held out qualified hopes for agreement on Algerian independence in the near future.

One year ago — The United States kept North Vietnam off limits to its fighter-bombers for the seventh straight day and continued its diplomatic offensive for peace negotiations.

Today is Thursday, Dec. 29, the 363rd day of 1966. There are two days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1845, Texas was admitted to the Union as the 28th state.

On this date:

In 1808, Andrew Johnson, the 17th President of the United States, was born.

In 1941, Japanese troops were closing in on the Philippine capital, Manila.

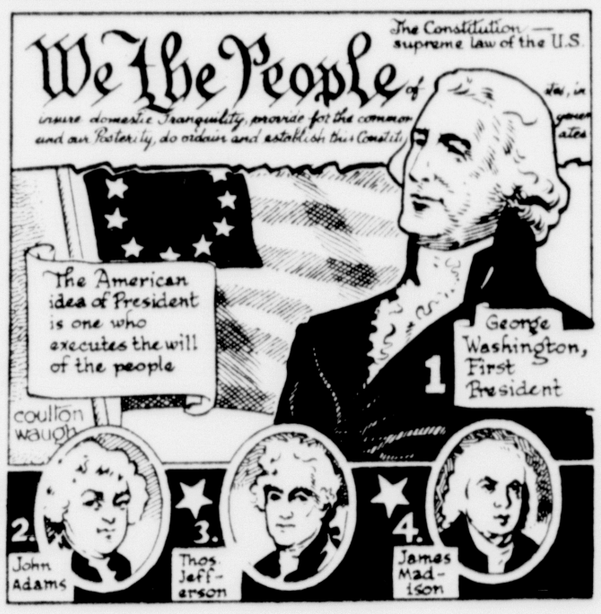
In 1944, the Nazis in the Belgian "bulge" were being squeezed by Allied armies hitting the Germans on three sides.

Ten years ago — United Nations salvage crews began the task of clearing the Suez Canal of sunken vessels and other obstacles blocking the waterway. The canal had been made impassable at the height of the Suez crisis.

Five years ago—French President Charles de Gaulle said the bulk of the French army in Algeria would be withdrawn in the coming year. In De Gaulle's 1961 yearend message, he held out qualified hopes for agreement on Algerian independence in the near future.

One year ago — The United States kept North Vietnam off limits to its fighter-bombers for the seventh straight day and continued its diplomatic offensive for peace negotiations.

A Junior Editors Quiz About PRESIDENT



QUESTION: Why was a president chosen to be the chief executive of the United States?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: "President" comes from the Latin "praeses," one who presides. A president, in Roman times, was one who governed provinces in the Emperor's name. The English used the word in much the same way. In the American colonies, there was a president of the council in several states. Soon after the Declaration of Independence, the Second Continental Congress appointed a committee to draw up a plan for the new nation's government. The Articles of Confederation, written for this committee by John Dickinson, were presented to the Congress and adopted. The Articles mentioned a president, but one without real power. They did not provide for strong government, so Washington and others called for a convention to draw up a constitution. The framers of the Constitution wanted a strong executive, but disliked the idea of a king ruling the new country. The solution was to keep the office of president but to give to it stronger powers than it had before. As a result, the office of president became one of tremendous importance.
